Striking Dairy Farmers Defy Police, Halt Trucks, Trains in Louisiana

IT SHALL NOT PASS—Grim, armed milk producers of Louisiana forcibly halted the movement of milk into the New Orleans area Tuesday and Wednesday in protest against a cut in the price paid them upon delivery. Milk trains and trucks were halted.

Three Radio Networks Evince Sympathy For Phone Walkout

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP)—Radio technicians on three major networks agreed Wednesday night to co-operate with telephone workers if the latter strike April 7. Union officials called it a "serious" threat to radio broadcasting.

A mutual assistance pact between the National Association of Broadcast Engineers and Technicians (NABET) and the National Federation of Telephone Workers which has called for a cross-country strike the day after Easter, was disclosed by the telephone union.

NABET has a contract with the National, American and Mutual broadcasting chains, but not with Columbia Broadcasting System, whose workers of similar skill are members of the AFL Brotherhood of Electricians.

Martin W. O'Donoghue, Washington Attorney for NABET, said his organization also has contracts with 57 local stations.

Redding Named Democratic Publicity Head

WASHINGTON, March 26—(UP)—John M Redding, former Chicago newspaperman and public relations officer for Gen. Omar N. Bradley during the war, Wednesday night was appointed Publicity Director of the Democratic National Committee, effective April 1. He succeeds Sam O'Neal, whose resignation after two years' service was announced Feb. 28.

Take-It-or-Leave-It Vote Set on Tax Cut

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP)—Republicans scored their first big victory toward lower taxes Wednesday as the GOP-controlled House rushed a $3,840,000,000 tax-cut bill toward a showdown on a take-it-or-leave-it basis amid renewed opposition from the White House.

The House capped a session of shouting, acrimonious debate by binding itself to vote for the so-called 30-20 income tax bill or none at all.

Speaker Martin, Republican, Massachusetts, predicted certain House passage of the measure, in final form, Thursday.

27th Senator Says No to Lilienthal

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP)—Sen. Ferguson, Republican, Michigan, came out Wednesday against confirmation of David E. Lilienthal as Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, calling him a crusader for "big government" who has proved himself "indifferent to Communists."

In a Senate speech announcing his voting intention, Ferguson cited staetments and actions from Lilienthal's career as Chairman of the Board of the Tennessee Valley Authority. He said these showed Lilienthal should not be approved now to head the Atomic Control Board.

Ferguson was the twenty-seventh Senator to announce against Lilienthal. However, 49, or more than a majority, have stated they are supporting him. The confirmation debate opened Monday, but has given way several times to permit the Senate to pass on other legislation.

GOP Solons Approve President Succession Bill

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP)—Voting on strict party lines, the Republican-dominated Senate Rules Committee Wednesday approved a bill putting House Speaker Joseph Martin, Republican, Massachusetts, as first in line of succession to the Presidency.

Six Republicans voted for the measure. Five Democrats voted against it. Two Republicans were absent.

Bank Group Agrees on Rent Curb Extension

WASHINGTON, March 26—(UP)—A Senate Banking Subcommittee Wednesday agreed on legislation to continue Federal rent controls until March 1, 1948, with any rent increase granted on a local or "home-town" basis.

Chairman C. Douglass Buck, Republican, Delaware, said final action was delayed until some minor points can be worked out, probably at a meeting Thursday.

Howard Hughes Agrees To Disclose Records

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP)—Sen. Brewster, Republican, Maine, said Wednesday night he had withdrawn a Senate subpoena for Howard Hughes, Hollywood movie maker and airplane manufacturer, after Hughes agreed to disclose records and accounts on two experimental aircraft built for the Government.

Brewster, Chairman of the Senate War Investigating Committee, said the two planes already have cost the Government more than $40,000,000.

EDNA LEE HITS LITERARY JACKPOT AS PARAMOUNT GRABS FIRST NOVEL

An Atlanta mother and son writer-agent team has hit the literary jackpot with the sale of movie rights to a forthcoming first novel, "The Web of Days," to Paramount Pictures for a reported $100,000.

The writer is Edna Lee and the agent, also a novelist, is Harry Lee.

"Web of Days" is a novel centering around plantation life in Georgia immediately following the War Between the States. Darien is the locale. Action stems from State history, kindled by long research.

D. Appleton-Century Company, Inc., publishers of the novel, announced a May 9 release for the book. The People's Book Club, subsidiary of the Literary Guild, has contracted for 600,000 copies.

Car Line Tract Sought For 4-Lane Truckway

The Fulton County Commission voted Wednesday to acquire from the Suburban Coach Lines the right-of-way of the old Atlanta-Northern streetcar line from Atlanta to Marietta for a modern four-lane truck highway, which would be the first of its kind in Georgia and one of the few in the United States

The Commission decided to begin negotiations upon receipt of letters from W. R. Neal, Chief Engineer and Deputy Director of the State Highway Department, and B. P. McWhorter, Division Engineer of the Public Roads Administration, advocating purchase of the right-of-way.

McWhorter said the Roads Administration would contribute Federal funds for such a highway if requested to do so by the State. Neal said it would be feasible to relocate the Atlanta-Marietta section of U. S. Highway 41 along the Atlanta-Northern right-of-way and that it would be ideal for bringing a large volume of heavy duty trucks into the city.

Commissioner Charles M. Brown declared that, because the whole stretch would be under the supervision of either the Fulton or the Cobb County Planning Commission, the road would be free of honky tonks and signboards.

The Commission also voted to continue a joint City-County program for resurfacing streets in

Giant B-36 Bomber Landed Safely After 12 Leap From Crippled Craft

FORT WORTH, Texas, March 26—(UP)—A 28-year-old civilian test pilot who stuck to the controls at the risk of his life late Wednesday landed the crippled six-engined B-36 bombing plane, largest in the world.

Twelve of the 14 crewmen aboard the 139-ton sky monster had parachuted to safety.

B. A. Erickson, Chief Test Pilot for Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation, set the B-36 down like a feather on the main runway at the air field despite a cracked gear in the landing mechanism.

Convair officials said it was a "normal landing and the multi-million-dollar plane wasn't even scratched."

At least four of the 12 men who parachuted were injured, none seriously.

Erickson brought the B-36 in on one of the few runways in the country strong enough to hold it after circling for more than two hours waiting for the quiet air of dusk.

Officials of Convair said a gear in the landing mechanism broke as the ship was on a routine test flight. They said a strut on the landing gear was cracked and the crewmen were ordered out. The plane had all landing gear down as it came in. The cracked strut did not break.

An official of the manufacturing company commented: "What Erickson did was to save a $20,000,000 ship with only a minimum of damage." The figure he quoted represents research as well as materials going into the plane. Subsequent cost is expected to range from $2,000,000 to $2,500,000 per plane.

In the control cabin with Erickson was G. S. Green, 30, Convair chief of flight at Fort Worth.

Erickson and Green took the B-36 on its first taxi tests last Summer and were at the controls when it made its maiden flight in July.

They risked death or serious injury Wednesday in sticking with the 278,000-pound plane for the emergency landing.

The B-36, completed last Summer after years of research which cost the Government many millions of dollars, was to be turned over to the Army Air Forces in June after a series of test flights.

The mammoth plane, with a wing span of 230 feet and a tall which towers to 46 feet—is powered by six pusher-type engines which, together, develop 18,000 horsepower.

The few specifications which have filtered through the tight net of secrecy surrounding the B-36 include data that it has a ceiling of 40,000 feet and a range of 10,000 miles fully loaded.

The ship normally carries a crew of 12 with a four-man relief crew in special quarters. Its fuel capacity is 21,116 gallons of gasoline and 1,200 gallons of oil.

Fulton Votes $105,000 Share For New Ford Plant Water Supply

With the big new Ford plant at Hapeville getting into production of 350 passenger or commercial units per day in the latter part of July or early in August, the Fulton County Commission Wednesday appropriated funds for the extension of a water main along Sylvan Road to the plant.

Commissioner Charles M. Brown explained that the County had guaranteed a water supply as an inducement for Ford to locate at Hapeville and had agreed to dig and backfill ditches for the Atlanta Water Works Department and to pay a fourth of the cost of the extension. He recalled that the Commission had also agreed, under the same conditions, to assist the City in extending the water main from Ashby and Simpson Roads out Gordon Road to Center Hill.

According to City Water Works Manager Zode Smith, the Ford extension will bypass East Point, going out Sylvan Road till it turns into Brewer Road. Both extensions will be about 15 miles long.

The Commission voted unanimously to appropriate $105,000 as the County's share of the cost of the two projects.

Construction of the new mains will begin at an early date, members of the Commission were informed.

Ford Plant Manager Henry C. Dorsey, of Jonesboro, said that his Company would employ from 2,000 to 2,500 persons in the Hapeville plant, which will cover 13½ acres. With the exception of a small supervisory staff, most of the labor will be local, he added.

The whole 13½ acres will be under one roof. There will be one story and a mezzanine floor.

Top-Flight Experts Set For 2-Day Photo Clinic

By BILL BORING

Authorities in all fields of still and movie photography will appear on the program of The Atlanta Constitution Photographic Clinic in the Municipal Auditorium Monday and Tuesday.

The two-day Clinic will comprise four sessions, the first beginning Monday afternoon at 2 p. m. Monday night's session will begin at 7:30, with the last feature starting at 9:30. Tuesday's opening session will start at 10 a. m., with its last feature getting underway at 5 p. m. Tuesday evening's session will open at 8 p. m., with the final program item starting at 9.

The complete Clinic program will be published in Friday editions of The Constitution.

Interspersed on the Clinic's program will be lectures, demonstrations and exhibitions which no professional will want to miss. The Clinic's wide range of subject matter, appealing both to the rankest amateur and to the specialist, is perhaps its most unique feature.

Lecturers at the Clinic will be the most experienced men in their fields. Their combined knowledge covers the entire fields of still and motion picture photography.

A film by Dan Conroy, of Miami, Fla., who is considered one of the top-ranking authorities in the art of moving-picture photography, will open the Clinic's program. It will be followed by talks and demonstrations by such experts as:

IF CALM COMES SO WILL BLOOMS

Peach trees will be in full bloom in the Fort Valley area this weekend—if the winds subside and let the warm weather return for the remainder of the week.

The trees in the Peach Belt were reported about 10 percent in bloom Wednesday.

With warm weather, the blossoms should be in full glory the first of next week, growers said.

Thompson Hints Milk Board's End

By M. L. ST. JOHN

Puzzled over the high milk prices and whether controls are necessary any longer, Acting Gov. Thompson may abolish the State Milk Control Board.

The Acting Governor said Wednesday he would wield the economy ax on some departments which he believes the State can do without, and would pare down the number of employees of other departments.

His move toward the Milk Board, however, would not be an economy step, since milk distributors finance the Board's operations through special levies.

The Board was created in 1937 as a depression measure to protect the milk distributors from milk wars that cut prices so low milk sold at a loss. It limited the number of dairies operating in a milk shed (large city supply areas) to those necessary to supply the demand. It fixed the minimum price for milk.

There was early criticism that the State Milk Board was under the thumb of the big dairy interests, fixing the prices high for the dairies and shutting out competition.

During the war, Federal controls and milk shortages made the State Board unnecessary. The OPA placed a maximum price on milk, and dairies reached for the top price in the days of milk shortages and did not bother with any minimum price the State Board might fix.

Thompson said he had heard many requests for the price of milk to be lowered from its wartime peak.

"I cannot understand why the price of milk should be higher in Atlanta than it is in other parts of the State, either," Thompson said. "I am making an investigation into the need, if any, of continuing the Board."

Milk Control Director George Stewart, close friend of Herman Talmadge, already has submitted his resignation to Thompson.

Members of the Board serve at the pleasure of the Governor.

A probable change in another State Department also was disclosed by Thompson Wednesday.

He said he is considering moving the State Forestry Department

Teamsters Support 'Shutoff'

AMITE, La., March 26—(AP)—Although State Police were out with orders to "keep the roads open," striking Louisiana dairy farmers continued Wednesday night to halt trucks and trains in an effort to cut off the supply of milk to New Orleans dairies.

A group of the farmers, who are protesting a cut in prices offered by New Orleans dairies, stopped Illinois Central Train No. 3 as it passed through here Wednesday night, but no milk was aboard. The farmers had previously asked railroad officials not to carry milk on the train.

Strikers halted trucks here all day, but none was found to be carrying milk. No State Police had yet been seen at Amite early Wednesday night, although the police reported dispersing at least one body of road-blocking farmers elsewhere in the strike area.

Under the new price scale, farmers who used to get $5.75 per hundredweight for milk of four percent butterfat now receive $5.20. Besides the reduction, the strikers are complaining of insufficient representation on the State Milk Commission, and charging the State Health Department with failure to enforce milk regulations properly.

In New Orleans, U. S. Attorney Herbert Christenberry said he was "carrying out orders of the Attorney General" to investigate the strike. Christenberry said the orders came after he had made a report on the situation to Atty. Gen. Clark.

Meanwhile, officials of American Federation of Labor unions planned to extend the strike to a boycott of stores and other enterprises using milk from the New Orleans dairies.

The International Brotherhood of Teamsters declared a boycott on all service to such places, effective Thursday. One Teamsters' official said the ban would extend to ships in port at New Orleans. The striking dairy farmers are members of two locals affiliated with the teamsters.

Patrick Ryan, Louisiana co-ordinator of the AFL, said representatives of building trades, metal trades and maritime unions would meet with the teamsters in New Orleans Thursday "to throw their support into this matter."

The first report of personal injury in the two-day-old strike came from a truck driver who said he had been beaten Wednesday by pickets who stopped his truck near New Orleans. Strikers here said a driver had pulled out a pistol when halted in that neighborhood, and that he was "beaten on the head with a gun" and disarmed.

Four truck drivers have said they were fired upon when they failed to stop at road blocks, and a few shots were reported fired

YOU'RE AT LIBERTY TO GUESS

Who's the Gal Atop the Capitol?

By JOHN COURIC

Don't be shocked if there's a blush on the cheeks of the lady atop the State Capitol this morning. She's virtually anonymous—and after all these years.

Some visitors to the Capitol Wednesday inquired as to the statue's symbolism and were met with unknowing glances from bystanders.

Queries to Capitol attaches charged with showing hospitality to tourists were almost as unproductive.

Curious to see how many State employees do know the identity of the old gal, this peregrinating paragrapher took up the quest. Varied answers included: "Huh?" "I've never heard." "I think its Liberty, or Freedom, but I'm not sure."

A. J. Prater, Custodian of the Capitol, hazarded the guess: "I'd say Liberty. I don't know for sure. If you find out, I wish you'd let me know."

And Mrs. Velma Fellows, information clerk, commented: "I have never known."

Miller Bell, of Milledgeville, member of the State Board of Regents of the University System, was sitting in the Governor's reception room. He said: "It's Minerva, Goddess of Wisdom. I know because I'm an SAE (Sigma Alpha Epsilon College Fraternity, which uses Minerva as a symbol.)

Freedom?

One harassed employee, who asked that his name not be used, apparently was annoyed by the inquiry, because he snapped back: "Nora Bayes," Miss Bayes having been the Betty Grable of his youth.

Even if the lady on the dome is unknown, her painting is okay. This was disclosed by Miss Ella May Thornton, State Librarian. Patina is the smooth green finish, or incrustation, which has gradually covered the lady on the dome since she began holding her sword and torch to the winds in 1889.

For those who don't know, the incrustation is to be desired—not removed with cleaner.

Miss Thornton also delved into the record to produce proof that the old gal is Freedom.

High Winds Due To Subside; Light Rains Are Expected

Lusty winds which for 36 hours had relentlessly buffeted Georgia Power and communication lines with speeds as high as 65 miles an hour slowed down to 45 miles an hour Wednesday, but firemen and power linemen still worked overtime battling effects of the swirling northwest gales.

Atlanta Weather Forecaster Harry Armstrong, however, reported there would be a state of calm today, accompanied by climbing temperatures and light rains this afternoon and tonight. For Friday Armstrong forecast a mercury drop in the morning, to be followed by rain and slightly warmer temperatures in the afternoon.

Wednesday Georgia Power Company linemen were receiving scattered calls on new damage, and crews were busy repairing damage resulting Tuesday from trees and limbs falling on power installations at Marietta, Athens, Macon, Dublin, Gordon, Louisville and Milledgeville.

Atlanta firemen reported fighting a total of 33 fires beginning 7 a. m. Wednesday. In the Fulton Street section of Southeast Atlanta flames whipped by a furious wind leaped quickly from structure to structure until three garages were destroyed and two residences damaged in a matter of minutes. Firemen kept close guard after checking the flames.

Entrances to the rotunda at the State Capitol have been blocked to prevent possible injury from windows hanging precariously in the Capitol dome.

The strong winds blew out several panes and loosened others. The rotunda will be reopened when repairs are made.

16 Bodies Removed From Mine

CENTRALIA, Ill., March 26—(UP)—A rescue crew began removing the bodies of miners from the Centralia Coal Company mine Wednesday night and it was believed the rescuers had found all 112 men trapped in the mine dead.

Robert Medill, State Superintendent of Mines, had announced that miners found alive would be brought to the surface before any bodies were removed.

Removal of the first load of seven bodies indicated that rescuers had completed exploration of the ill-fated mine and found all dead.

Within a few minutes the number of dead brought to the surface had increased to 16. Rescue crews appeared at the surface with the first bodies at 7 p. m. (CST).

The bodies were taken to a garage near by where identification was to be made by relatives, who had kept day and night vigils since an explosion thundered through the mine at 3:30 p. m. (CST) Tuesday.

Long before the first bodies were brought to the surface, Mine Union and Mine Department officials had expressed fears all of the men were dead.

A United Press survey of these officials showed that 142 men were in the mine when the explosion occurred. One body was recovered Tuesday night. Twenty-nine of the men escaped, leaving 112 unaccounted for.

Early Wednesday rescuers reported they had counted 20 bodies.

Late Wednesday, however, one Company spokesman said 31 miners had been saved and that only 110 miners were entombed. Another Company spokesman said 30 had been rescued, that 17 were known dead and 104 others unaccounted for.

There was no official word from the Company on whether all of the miners had been found dead, even after the bodies started coming up.

The crowd of anxious relatives and townspeople which had kept long vigils at the scene was tensely silent as the first bodies appeared.

State patrolmen and soldiers from Scott Field, Ill., joined hands and formed a huge ring about the mine shaft tipple to keep the onlookers back.

Long lines of ambulances were lined up, bumper to bumper, as the rescuers appeared with the bodies.

As the rescuers probed through the mine Wednesday it was learned that State Mine Department inspectors recently had criticized safety precautions. At Washington, the Senate ordered an investigation.

The mine, known as No. 5, is located in the little community of Wamac just south of here.

The townspeople and relatives said nothing as the bodies were brought out of the mine. Occasionally there were sobs from women. Others wept quietly. But there was so sign of hysteria.

OPA READY TO SCUTTLE 300 CASES AGAINST SMALL-TIME MARKETEERS

A Washington announcement that OPA is ready to scuttle most of its remaining legal actions against price violators will probably "clear" more than 300 alleged small-time black marketeers in the Southeast, Atlanta agency officials estimated Wednesday.

Washington sources said overceiling charges of up to $3,000 probably will be forgiven, although OPA will fight any move toward general amnesty.

John D. Mosby, Chief of the Atlanta Enforcement Division, said of 538 OPA cases now pending in this area, 307 fall in the "under-$3,000" category. He stressed that "big offenders" will be prosecuted and enforcement of rent, sugar and rice regulations, still in force, is in no way affected.

OPA Branch Enforcement offices in Miami, Memphis and Raleigh will be closed April 30 and their activities transferred to the regional office in Atlanta, James P. Davis, Regional OPA Administrator, has announced. He said the move "will permit more centralized enforcement of the remaining sugar, rice and rent controls within our limited liquidation budget."

Dictaphone Used To Get OPA Evidence

Atlanta OPA investigators on the trail of suspected black marketeers use such "movie thriller" methods as dictaphones concealed in hotel rooms and agents who pose as agency saboteurs, it was disclosed in colorful United States District Court testimony here Wednesday.

Elbert B. Anderson, Special Agent in OPA's Enforcement Division here, was Government witness in a case charging Frank Holt, former OPA official, and five other defendants with conspiracy to violate the Second War Powers Act. This was to be accomplished, it was alleged, through unlawful diversion of large quantities of sugar and gasoline ration coupons.

Anderson told the Court OPA maintained two adjoining downtown hotel rooms for use by investigators. He said an OPA "decoy," named Christy Montalto, who, it was brought out by defense counsel, had a criminal record, on at least one occasion tricked suspects into damaging disclosures in one of the hotel rooms.

Statements regarding alleged black market operations were picked up by a dictaphone machine concealed under a bed, Anderson said, and were heard clearly by him and other OPA agents by use of headphones in the other room.

The trial will be continued today. United States District Judge Robert L. Russell is hearing the case.

J. A. Ross Fined In Sugar Case

Constitution State News Service.

DUBLIN, March 26—J. A. Ross, prominent Eastman wholesale grocer, pleaded guilty in U. S. District Court here Wednesday to an indictment charging conspiracy to divert unlawfully 675,000 pounds of sugar from legitimate trade and was fined $10,000 by Judge Frank M. Scarlett.

Three others who pleaded innocent to the same conspiracy indictment were convicted by a jury and their sentences are: W. V. Heavner, Lincolnton, N. C., three years imprisonment and fine of $5,000; Lee Gilstrap, Gainesville bus line operator, two years imprisonment and fine of $5,000; John A. Gilstrap, of Gainesville, a year and a day imprisonment and $2,500 fine.

According to Charles M. Debele, attorney in charge of the OPA Branch Enforcement Office in Atlanta, the conspiracy case involved the largest amount of unlawfully diverted sugar—675,000 pounds—ever investigated in Georgia by the OPA.

Presbyterians Of Lakewood To Organize Church

The Rev. Wilds S. DuBose, of Avondale Estates, has announced plans to organize a new Presbyterian Church in the Lakewood section, to be known as the Lakewood Presbyterian Church.

The organization meeting will take place at 7:30 p. m. Sunday in the Lakewood Theater under the auspices of a Comission of the Atlanta Presbytery. Dr. Franklin C. Talmadge, Superintendent of Home Missions for the Atlanta Presbytery, will preside.

Those who are to take part include: The Rev. William C. Sistar, pastor of the Georgia Avenue Presbyterian Church; the Rev. William J. Hazlewood, Pastor, Hapeville Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Dr. Stuart Oglesby, Pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, who will preach the sermon, and Robert F. Head, Elder of the Druid Hills Presbyterian Church. The choir of Central Presbyterian Church, under the direction of the Rev. Hubert Vance Taylor, will provide the music.

The Rev. Mr. DuBose, who is slated to be elected Pastor of the new church, was for three years Pastor of the Ingleside Presbyterian Church at Avondale Estates. Since Jan. 1 he has engaged in the organization of the Lakewood church. He is a native of Birmingham and came to Atlanta from Mississippi. His son, Wilds S. DuBose, Jr., recently completed the organization of the new Capitol View Presbyterian Church in Montgomery, Ala.

Until the new Lakewood Presbyterian Church erects a building of its own, the congregation expects to hold services in the Lakewood Theater.

OFF THE RECORD — By Ed Reed

"But Mr. Winterbottom—you asked for a hot plate!"

Press Freedom in Peril, Educator Group Declares

CHICAGO, March 26—(AP)—A special commission of educators and others declares after a three-year study that America's freedom of the press is in danger.

The Commission, headed by Robert M. Hutchins, Chancellor of the University of Chicago, gives three reasons:

First, the development of the press as an instrument of mass communication "has greatly decreased the proportion of the people who can express their opinions and ideas through the press;" second, "the few" able to use the press "have not provided a service adequate to the needs of society," and third, they "have engaged from time to time in practices which the society condemns."

The danger is not so great, the Commission says, however, that "freedom will be swept away over night," and "the present crisis is simply a stage in the long struggle for free expression."

The report is in the form of a 139-page book, "A Free and Responsible Press," published Thursday by the University of Chicago Press.

Included in the study, financed by grants of $200,000 from Time, Inc., and of $15,000 from the Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc., are newspapers, radio, motion pictures, magazines and books. All of these media are referred to by the Commission as "The Press."

The report says the "number of units" in the communications industry has declined, with the opportunities for newcomers in those fields "strictly limited."

If the "concentrations of power" in the press become "so powerful that they are a threat to democracy," the Commission says, there is a risk of government control and of a "long step" toward totalitarianism. But it declares "the American Press is less venal and less subservient" to political and economic pressure than that of many other countries, . . . and the leading organs . . . have achieved a standard of excellence unsurpassed anywhere in the world."

OPA CEILINGS FOR SUGAR, RICE

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP) — The OPA announced Wednesday it will establish specific dollar and cents retail ceiling prices on sugar and rice on about April 15.

Since last October, dealers have computed their own ceiling prices on the basis of permitted "mark ups" over their costs.

OPA said the change is being made because "the consumer has inadequate information concerning the exact ceiling prices" where the dealer computes his own ceiling. It said the new ceilings will be uniform for types of stores in each pricing area and are to be computed by the OPA Regional Offices.

Cook Gets Bid To Closed Shop Defense 'Huddle'

Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook has been invited to attend a conference of Attorneys General to discuss defenses against legal attacks of legislation outlawing the closed shop, he announced Wednesday.

Cook said his acceptance of the invitation to a meeting April 14 and 15, in Omaha, Neb., would depend upon Acting Gov. Thompson's action on two General Assembly bills prohibiting the closed shop and the use of violence in strikes.

Thompson has not decided whether he will sign or veto the legislation. Cook will attend if the Acting Governor signs the measures into law.

Walter R. Johnson, Attorney General of Nebraska, issued the invitation because the American Federation of Labor is taking steps to have a Nebraska Constitutional Amendment, prohibiting the closed shop, declared in violation of the Federal Constitution.

Attorneys General from Arizona and Florida, States having closed shop laws, also have been invited to the conference.

Churchwomen Urge Welfare Centralization

The need for a central information service to channel families with health, financial or emotional problems to the proper social agency, was voiced Wednesday at a discussion sponsored by the Atlanta Council of Churchwomen.

School principals and teachers, social and health workers, and parents participated in the discussion and concurred in the conclusion that more co-ordination is needed in welfare work.

"This is being referred from one welfare agency to another!" exclaimed one principal, who seeks to untangle the problem in the homes of her school children. "Half the time the problem is solved before the family reaches the 'proper' agency."

The group passed a resolution requesting the Child and Family Section of the Community Planning Council to attempt to set up the central information service.

Speakers included Mrs. Malcolm Bryan, Ed Kahn, Mrs. Lessie K. Cather. In a panel discussion led by Mrs. W. B. Suddeth, the following participated: Jarvis Barnes, of the City school; Mrs. Dorothy Floyd, Principal of Crew Street School; Miss Cleveland Zoliner and Miss Annie J. Johnson, of the Department of Public Welfare; Miss Anglea Cox, of the Family Service Society; Miss Grace Dicks, of the Child Welfare Association, and Ray Guy, of the Red Cross.

to Athens and operating it in conjunction with the School of Forestry of the University of Georgia. Thompson will discuss this plan with the Board of Regents in April and with representatives of the Georgia Forestry Association.

Interested in taking in more money for parks development, Thompson announced the State would no longer lease the parks to individuals to operate as concessions, but would run the parks itself.

"I am informed that some of these concession operators make more money than the Governor of Georgia," Thompson remarked. "If there is any money to be made in operating the parks, I think the State should get it and use the funds for improving tourist attractions. If there is a loss, then the State has merely provided a necessary service for the people."

Continuing his economy drive, Thompson asked all State agencies to eliminate all empoyees possible and eliminate objects of expenditure that can be delayed without serious effect on the people of the State.

"In order to prevent a breakdown in educational facilities for our children it will be necessary to eliminate from the cost of government every item of expenditure that is above an irreducible minimum."

The Acting Governor disclosed that he had signed a bill increasing the pay of constitutional officers to $7,500 annually. He added he considered this a good bill. Salary raises went to the Labor Commissioner, Agricultural Commissioner, Comptroller General, Treasurer, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State School Superintendent, and members of the Public Service Commission. A traveling expense of $1,800 a year went to members of the Parole Board. He also signed a bill raising the State Auditor's salary to $10,000.

AWAITING WORD—These wives of miners trapped in the No. 5 mine of the Centralia, Ill., Coal Company sat under the hanging clothing of their trapped husbands Wednesday waiting word from rescue workers. The miners were entombed when an explosion shook the mine.

their heavy helmets and soldiers unloaded the stretchers bearing the first bodies removed from the mine and carried them to the waiting ambulances.

Authorities said relatives would not be admitted to the temporary morgue until undertakers had attended the bodies. Identifications were to be made by others than immediate family members wherever possible.

Some of the relatives waiting at the mine shaft refused to give up hope, even after workers began removing bodies.

Atlanta during 1947. Alderman E. A. Gilliam, representing the City, said the program contemplated expenditure of $261,000 on a 50-50 basis.

Praise for the Committee consisting of Chairman Clarence Duncan, County Atty. Ralph Pharr, Commissioner I. Gloer Hailey, County Auditor James L. Respess and Frank Shaw, of the Chamber of Commerce, for securing an AA rating in New York for the County's $20,000,000 bond issue was expressed by Commissioners. The rating is expected to mean a saving of several hundred thousand dollars to taxpayers.

Commissioner Hailey said also that Atty. Pharr, working in conjunction with New York lawyers, had secured a ruling from the U. S. Treasury Department making the discount on the bonds as well as the interest free of Federal taxes, another excellent selling point in their favor.

The Commission will meet at 10 a. m. today to open bids for the bonds.

A long-time rule was changed when the Commission voted to instruct the purchasing agent to buy machinery and supplies for the County on the low bid for comparable products rather than on the recommendation of department heads.

MARVIN McDONALD and MRS. T. ERWIN SCHNEIDER
Honors to Music Club Sponsor.

LET'S SEE NOW . . .

Star-Light Revolves For Marvin McDonald

By DORIS LOCKERMAN

The tables were turned on Marvin McDonald Wednesday evening at the Arturo Rubinstein concert. The driving, visionary man who has presented hundreds of stars to music lovers in this city in the last 15 years, was himself presented as a star.

It was a great surprise. Marvin, dressed in the tuxedo which is as much his working costume as a gray flannel suit is to other men, was standing behind the stage, as he always is, feeling the same excitement he always feels when he brings a top-notch entertainer to Atlanta's discriminating audience.

Mrs. T. Irwin Schneider, the clear-thinking and handsome President of the Atlanta Music Club, asked for the microphone for just a moment before the concert was set to begin. She walked out on the stage.

Then she beckoned to Marvin, standing in the wings. He looked startled, shook his head, walked toward her.

"In recognition of the fine work of Marvin McDonald," said Mrs. Schneider into the mike to the capacity audience, "I wish to make this announcement in the name of the Atlanta Music Club. We have this week established the Marvin McDonald Music Scholarship, to be added to the Imogene Brower Hatcher Foundation, to be a perpetual aid to deserving and talented young musicians."

Marvin's round cheeks grew pinker. His eyes were disbelieving. Mrs. Schneider turned to him, handed him a silver cigarette case, engraved with the words, "The Marvin McDonald Scholarship."

She smiled. "An anniversary present from us to you, Marvin," she said. "We've had thirteen years together—all pleasant, and all of them profitable for us and for Atlanta."

It was more than a crown to Marvin McDonald. It was an achievement, which all Atlanta will applaud. For while no one has named Marvin McDonald to the fancy title of "Man of the Year," he has contributed greatly, for many years to the city's culture and its good.

McDonald and the Music Club merged in 1934, not without misgivings, in the dark days when half a house at any musical event was considered a wonderful audience. Many doubters viewed the combination ruefully.

But the Music Club has long been fortunate in the women it has chosen to head it. They have been intelligent, unpetty women, devoted to music and its larger aspects for the community itself.

They admitted no impediment to their "marriage of true minds."

Long ago Atlanta came to be known in New York among the booking circles as a choice billing. It paid fabulous fees. It had the lowest-priced series in America, and its houses were sell-outs, with competent listeners.

McDonald, who peddled such voices as Helen Traubel in the days when she had to be sold, who heard Marian Anderson when she was only beginning her ascendency, became known in the East as a shrewd bargainer. His word grew to be as firm as his contract, and Atlanta profited by the confidenced he developed.

No one knows how much money has been spent on musical education in Atlanta as a result of the Music Club-McDonald union. The Atlanta Youth Symphony was launched by them, during the presidency of Mrs. James O'Hear Sanders. Hospitals, community houses, schools are given free musical performances. The new shell at the Auditorium is the gift of the Music Club. Many promising students have been helped, and always without fanfare.

And behind all this, Marvin McDonald has become stronger and more generous, and the Music Club said so proudly in public last night.

PILGRIMAGE TO FRANCE

France is bolstering herself for a pilgrimage of Americans in 1947. Names like Pont de la Madeleine (Utah Beach), St. Laurent sur Mer (Omaha Beach), Avranches and Courseulles, have come to mean as much to today's fighting men and their families as Meuse-Argonne and St. Mihiel meant to their fathers and mothers. The French National Tourist Office has announced a project to arrange tours for visitors to France to see the battlefields and cemeteries that are so vivid to American families. They will build loads linking the historic spots, and have already begun to provide adequate tourist lodgings where they are needed. The atmosphere of war will be retained by forbidding the removal of abandoned material which will remain as evidence of the struggle and destruction that occurred.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

ThompsonToSign Planning Act

Acting Gov. Thompson, at a ceremony planned for 10:30 a. m. today, will sign the act of the recent General Assembly creating the Metropolitan Planning Council for Fulton and DeKalb Counties, Atlanta and Decatur.

The new Council, when activated by the several governments, will co-ordinate the plans of the two Counties for future expansion and growth, with particular emphasis on roads and public services, on industrial growth, and in general matters which affect the two areas.

The new board will not supplant the present Fulton County Planning Commission, nor the Atlanta Planning Commission.

Officials of the two Counties and two cities, together with legislative delegations, have been invited to the ceremony, which was arranged by the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

Fulton Gins Less Cotton

The Census Bureau reports that 4,324 bales of cotton have been ginned in Fulton County from the 1946 crop, compared with 5,785 bales ginned from the 1945 crop.

New American Diplomatic Lineup Looms in Soviet Satellite States

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

President Truman, Wednesday, cleared the way for an almost entirely new American diplomatic lineup in Soviet satellite states of Eastern Europe as the Big Four Ministers meeting in Moscow wrangled for five hours without reaching any major decisions.

Mr. Truman disclosed that Ambassador Richard C. Patterson will not return to his post in Yugoslavia. The announcement followed by a day the resignation of Arthur Bliss Lane, Ambassador to Poland. The United States already was without full diplomatic representation in Romania, Bulgaria and Albania, which, like Poland, take their cue from Moscow.

Other developments on the wide diplomatic front found Soviet Russia boycotting the opening session of the United Nations Trusteeship Council at Lake Success, N. Y., and former Mayor LaGuardia, of New York, voicing opposition to President Truman's plan for aid to Greece and Turkey.

Successors to Patterson and Lane will be appointed shortly, the President said. He thereby put an end to speculation that their posts might be left vacant indefinitely as a result of continuing friction in relations with Yugoslavia and Poland.

Diplomatic vacancies in Romania and Bulgaria likewise may be filled soon. There have been no hints, however, of intent to resume relations soon with Albania. These came to an end with the withdrawal of an American mission last Fall.

Mr. Truman's announcement that Patterson will not return to Belgrade was given in reply to a question and included no explanation.

In Moscow Secretary of State

NEW YORK, March 26—(AP)—Elliott Roosevelt Wednesday told the Overseas Press Club of America that Russia was "in a very bad economic condition, and her lack of manpower is a tremendous problem in her economic rebuilding."

He said Russia was not in a position to wage war, but "maybe in a few years, yes."

Four Council was becoming so "ensnarled" that "reasonable progress is unfortunately remote."

Marshall told his colleagues, during the longest meeting of the ministers to date, that most of the arguments had been on relatively unimportant matters.

The only agreement was to allow Yugoslavia to send a delegation to Moscow for consultation in connection with the Austrian peace treaty. Dr. Karl Gruber, Austrian Foreign Minister, and a staff of 12 arrived during the day from Vienna.

Both British Foreign Secretary Bevin and Russian Foreign Minister Molotov opposed Marshall's suggestion that no German government be required to sign the German pact, but that the pact be imposed by inserting a compliance clause in the new Reich constitution.

Marshall replied that the question was not urgent, and that perhaps the proposed German peace conference might like to express itself on the subject.

Russia's action at Lake Success was the first time since Soviet Delegate Gromyko's dramatic walkout o nhte Security Council a year ago that a maior organ of the United Nations met without a Soviet representative.

Although the absence of Russia raised no legal difficulties, it caused concern among UNO officials already worried by what appeared to be a growing tendency to by-pass the organization on important problems.

The Soviet absence became a certainty 24 hours after Gromyko had upset a majority of the Security Council by using Russia's big power veto for the 10th time to block a decision upholding British mine-laying charges against Albania.

Earlier UNO concern was felt when Secretary-General Trygve Lie appealed to delegates to resort to the world peace organization on all international programs, even when "the most vital national interests are at stake."

Lie made no direct reference to President Truman's request to Congress for $400,000,000 aid to Greece and Turkey or the President's declaration that the UNO was unable at present to deal with totalitarian threats to those countries.

"This opening meeting of the Trusteeship Council," he said, "should be a useful object lesson to those who underestimate the potentiality of the United Nations, or the ability of its members to reach agreement on difficult issues."

At Washington, LaGuardia urged the Senate to reject President Truman's $400,000,000 Greco-Turkish aid program. He charged it would by-pass the United Nations, create an anti-Russian European bloc and involve this country in Balkan politics "for generations."

"If you go into the Balkans alone you will rue the day," the peppery little New Yorker warned the Senate Foreign Relations Committee as that body prepared to wind up its hearings and try for a test vote on the controversial issue Thursday.

The Committee's haste was prompted by a new hurry-up plea from President Truman. It limited all of the many opposition witnesses who showed up Wednesday to 10 minutes' testimony each, excepting LaGuardia.

MORTUARY

GREENE INFANT

Emily Anne Greene, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Greene, Jr., of 167 E. Wesley Rd., died Wednesday in a private hospital. Graveside services will be held at 3 p. m. today in West View Cemetery, with the Rev. Stuart R. Oglesby officiating. Other survivors include grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greene, Sr., of Atlanta.

JOHN M. CHAPMAN

Funeral services for John M. Chapman, 69, formerly of Atlanta, sporting promoter, who died March 19 in Santa Monica, Cal., will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in the Red Oak Christian Church, with the Rev. W. G. Carter and the Rev. Gerald Y. Smith officiating. Burial will be in the churchyard.

Jury Convicts Homer Loomis, Jr. On 3 Counts

Homer Loomis, Jr., Secretary-Organizer of the Columbians, Inc., was convicted by a jury after two hours' deliberation Wednesday on three counts of usurpation of police powers growing out of the order's patroling the Garibaldi-Formwalt Street area last Fall with the avowed purpose of keeping Negroes out of white neighborhoods.

Judge Bond Almand, of Fulton Superior Court, who presided at the trial, said he would sentence the defendant today.

A month ago Loomis was convicted of riot growing out of the same activities of the Columbians and sentenced to serve a year. Later, Emory Burke, President of the Columbians, was convicted of usurpation of police powers on virtually the same evidence as that introduced by Prosecutors Paul Webb and William Boyd against Loomis during the six-day trial just concluded.

Mrs. H. S. Lamb Dies; Rites To Be Held in Macon

Mrs. Lillian G. Lamb, widow of H. S. Lamb, died Wednesday at her home, 1005 McLynn Ave., N. E.

Funeral services and burial will be held in Macon.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Wallace, of Macon, and Mrs. L. C. Taylor, of Atlanta; four sisters, Miss Elizabeth Bryant, Miss Gladys Bryant, and Mrs. Alice Wells, all of Macon, and L. L. Slater, of Metter; and two brothers, W. F. Bryant, of Macon, and the Rev. W. C. Bryant, of Columbus, Ga.

2 Found Guilty Of Liquor Law Conspiracy

Claude H. Anderson, 35, of 1715 Lennox Rd., N. E., and Nevel Riley Lawson, 60, of Woodstock, Wednesday were found guilty by a U. S. District Court jury here of conspiracy to violate internal revenue laws through illegal distilling.

The jury acquitted Jack Gibson, of Woodstock, who had been on trial for the same charges.

Two additional defendants, Clyde Bone, of 821 Curran St., N. W., and Robert O. Turner, of the Miller Hotel, Atlanta, who pleaded guilty prior to opening of the trial, have already been sentenced to two years' imprisonment each by U. S. District Judge E. Marvin Underwood.

Judge Underwood has not yet sentenced Anderson or Lawson. The trial, which has been under way for three weeks, was termed by U. S. Atty. Ellis Mundy and Asst. U. S. Atty. Jim Manning, prosecutors, "one of the biggest cases of its kind ever tried here."

A Federal Grand Jury which indicted the alleged conspirators cited 92 charges of overt acts, and Government investigators confiscated 5,100 gallons of liquor, 11 trucks and one passenger car. Mundy said the distribution point for liquor was a garage building on Ivy Street in Atlanta.

P. T. McCutchen, 81, Editor, Dies, Rites Scheduled Today

Constitution State News Service.

FRANKLIN, March 26—The funeral of Pleasant Theodore McCutchen, Sr., Georgia's oldest active editor, who died at his home here Wednesday, will be held Thursday at 3 p. m. at the Methodist Church. The Rev. J. C. Adams, pastor, will officiate and interment will be in the City cemetery. Chattahoochee Lodge of Masons will conduct graveside rites. Lewis & Lipford are the funeral directors in charge.

Pres. A. Belmont Dennis named the following editors as an honorary escort from the Georgia Press Association at the funeral: C. E. Benns, Butler; Roy McGinty, Calhoun; Stanley Parkman, Carrollton; M. L. Fleetwood, Cartersville; Roy Emmet, Cedartown; Albert Hardy, Sr., Gainesville; John N. Holder, Jefferson; E. W. Thomasson, Newnan; R. K. Stovall, Greenville; H. Meek, Bremen.

P. T. McCUTCHEN, SR.
Funeral Rites Today

ACTIVE TO THE END

While he had suffered from a heart ailment for three months preceding his death, the 81-year-old editor continued active in his long newspaper career up to the last minute. He wrote editorials for last week's issue of the Franklin News and Banner, which he published for 63 years.

Mr. McCutchen was long prominent in the newspaper, political, religious and fraternal life of Georgia. He was one of the founders of the Present Georgia Press Association and was the last surviving person present at the organization meeting held in Milledgeville in 1886. He had attended every annual session of the Association up until two years ago. He had long served as news correspondent for The Constitution at Franklin and in Heard County.

He began publishing the Franklin News and Banner when he was 18 years of age and continued until the day he died. For several years he also published a newspaper at Newnan, the News.

FRANKLIN'S MAYOR

In political circles, Mr. McCutchen was Mayor of Franklin when his home town first received lights and water about 15 years ago. He served as secretary to Reps. Moses and Adamson of the Fourth District many years ago. In 1908, he was a member of the Georgia House of Representatives. Mr. McCutchen during the administration of Gov. Hugh Dorsey served as Superintendent of the State Department of Printing, which is equivalent to State Purchasing Agent today. He was a member of Gov. W. Y. Atkinson's staff. For many years he had been a member of the Franklin Board of Education.

Mr. McCutchen's son, P. T. McCutchen, Jr., was Executive Secretary to Gov. Arnall and served two terms as Clerk of the House of Representatives.

An active member of the Methodist church, the editor was a steward, Sunday school superintendent and Sunday school teacher for many years, and represented his church at the North Georgia Methodist Conference.

PROMINENT MASON

In fraternal life Mr. McCutchen was one of the oldest members of the Yarab Temple of Shriners. He held many offices in the Masonic organization.

Mr. McCutchen was born in Franklin and was a resident of this town all of his life. He married the former Miss Mae Close, of Atlanta. She died in 1904. Later he married Miss Katherine Hardy, of Meriwether County, who survives him.

The following daughters and sons also survive: Charles C. and P. T. McCutchen, both of Atlanta; Mrs. W. D. Hammond, Marion, Ala.; Mrs. W. S. Guice, Jr., Atlanta; Stephen H. and Berrien T. McCutchen and Mrs. O. W. Burns, of Franklin; a sister, Mrs. Sally McCutchen Wheeler, Oklahoma City, Okla., and seven grandchildren. The son Berrien, is associate editor of the Franklin News and Banner.

Mrs. O. C. Murphy Dies; Funeral Services Today

Mrs. O. C. Murphy, 55, of 1339 Cambridge Ave., Egan, died Wednesday in a private hospital after a short illness.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. today in the Cambridge Avenue Church of God, of which she was a member, with the Rev. J. V. Johnson and the Rev. W. H. Dameron officiating. Burial will be in Hill Crest Cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, an employee of Metter's Machine Shop; two sons, Roy and Hoyt Murphy, of Atlanta, and five daughters, Mrs. J. F. Farr and Mrs. A. H. Humphries, of Atlanta; Mrs. J. L. Holt, of East Point; Mrs. D. W. White, of College Park, and Miss Edna Murphy, of Egan.

PORTLAND, Ore.—(INS)—The first Catholic mausoleum in the Northwest, a million dollar granite and marble edifice, will be built this Spring on Mt. Calvary.

C. H. Nelson, 77, Dies in Hospital

Charles Henry Nelson, 77, of 113 Elizabeth Lane, East Point, founder of several South Georgia schools and later State Manager of the Woodmen of the World, died Wednesday in a private hospital after a long illness.

Traveling over the State in the days when readin', writin', and 'rithmetic were the vogue in education, Mr. Nelson, a native of Louisiana and a college graduate, established many rural schools, setting them up according to the community wishes, teaching for a while, and moving on to new territory.

He came to Atlanta about 40 years ago, and became affiliated with the Woodmen. Through his work in organizing chapters throughout the State, he eventually became the Georgia Manager, which position he held 25 years until his retirement in 1932. He was also a member of the Masons and the Elks.

His survivors include a daughter, Mrs. L. K. Edwards, of East Point; a sister, Miss Annie Nelson, of Junction City, Ark.; three brothers, N. W. Nelson, of Minden, La.; Luther Nelson, of Junction City, Ark., and Bud Nelson, who resides in Texas; a grandson, and several nieces and nephews.

W. E. Jordan, 71, Dies; Funeral Services Today

W. E. Jordan, 71, of 305 Connecticut Ave., N. E., retired planing mill employee, died Tuesday in a private hospital after a long illness. He was born in Gwinnett County.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p. m. today at Spring Hill, with the Rev. W. O. Nelson, a son-in-law, officiating. Burial will be in West View Cemetery.

Mr. Jordan, a resident of Atlanta for 50 years, is survived by three daughters, Mrs. H. L. Collins and Mrs. C. H. Patrick, of Atlanta, and Mrs. W. O. Nelson, of Ellisville, Miss.; two sons, M. L. Jordan, of Atlanta, and J. A. Jordan, of Arlington, Va.; a sister, Mrs. Lela Gulledge, of Rome; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

I. F. Nichols, Sr., Dies In Arizona; Ex-Atlantan

I. F. Nichols, Sr., of Tucson, Ariz., formerly of Atlanta, died March 20 at his home there. Funeral services and burial were held Monday in Tucson.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. F. J. Holsinger, of Tucson; a son, I. F. Nichols, Jr., of Tempe, Ariz., and a granddaughter, Miss Caroline Nichols, also of Tempe.

David C. Hudlow Dies; Scottdale Mills Worker

David C. Hudlow, 50, of 16 E. Ponce de Leon Ave., Scottdale, a native of Atlanta and an employee of the Scottdale Mills, died Monday in Lawson General Hospital after a long illness.

Funeral services will be announced after the arrival of a brother, Sgt. Julius Hudlow, from Austria. A. S. Turner & Sons will be in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Hudlow was a member of the Scottdale Methodist Church. He is survived by his wife; a son, Tommy Hudlow, of Atlanta; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hudlow, of Atlanta; a sister, Mrs. James E. Newkirk, and his brother.

Mrs. Mary Alice Swords Succumbs; Funeral Today

Drivers' Fees Sought For Veterinary School

A plan to finance a new veterinary school at the University of Georgia through the advance sale of five-year drivers' licenses has been advanced by Rep. Jack Wells, of Clarke County, with the approval of Acting Gov. Thompson and State Auditor B. E. Thrasher, Jr.

Under terms of a bill passed by the recent Legislature, motorists may purchase drivers' licenses good for five years for $5. The bill, written by Wells, was intended as a convenience for motorists so they would not be required to obtain new licenses each year.

Construction of a veterinary school was included in the Appropriations Bill, which was passed by the House but died in the Senate when new revenue measures failed.

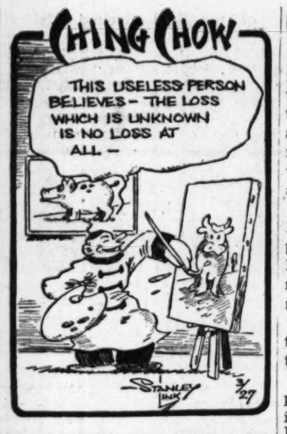

"Georgia today receives approximately $1,000,000 in sale of drivers' licenses," Wells said. "If 40 percent of the motorists obtaining new licenses before June 30, 1947, would purchase five-year licenses, the State would receive $2,000,000 within the next few months from this source.

"I have asked Acting Gov. Thompson and State Auditor Thrasher to permit us to launch a sales campaign and to use for the veterinary school all funds from the sale of licenses extending over one year's period. They say the idea is feasible."

Sec. L. R. Siebert, of the Board of Regents, said if the alumni and other friends of the University System would co-operate in a sales campaign, plans could be started in September for the new buildings.

Siebert said that a "pre-veterinarian school" was started at the University of Georgia last year. One hundred students were enrolled on the belief that the activity would be expanded by the recent Legislature to a degree-offering school.

Auburn is the only veterinary school in the South, Siebert said. While Georgians interested in veterinary medicine previously attended Auburn, the Alabama school today is limiting its student body to Alabama students.

Fresh Apple in Bran Muffins! Wonderful!
MAKE THEM UP IN NO TIME!
Crunchy, toasted Kellogg's All-Bran and fresh apple taste just dreamy!
2 tablespoons shortening
¼ cup sugar
1 egg
¾ cup grated raw apple
1 cup Kellogg's All-Bran
½ cup milk
1 cup sifted flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
Blend shortening and sugar. Add egg; beat well. Stir in apple, Kellogg's All-Bran, and milk. Let soak until most of moisture is taken up. Add sifted dry ingredients to first mixture. Stir only until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin pan two-thirds full. Bake in moderate oven (400° F.) about 30 minutes. Makes 12 muffins. You'll want to make them often.
Good Nutrition, Too! All-Bran is made from the VITAL OUTER LAYERS of finest wheat — serve daily as a cereal.

Thompson Signs Local Bills For Fulton, DeKalb, Cobb

Acting Gov. Thompson has signed numerous Fulton, DeKalb and Cobb County bills, including measures providing for a County Manager system for Fulton County and a legal affairs department for the County to be administered by County Atty. Ralph Pharr.

Heretofore, the County Attorney has had two assistants and the Tax Collector and the Board of Tax Assessors have had their own attorneys, while other department heads have employed special lawyers. The present law consolidates all legal business in the County under Pharr.

Thompson said he would sign the Buckhead Annexation Bill, but his office stated the Bill had not reached his desk Wednesday.

Later Fulton bills signed by the Acting Governor included those which would:

Raise the salary of the Criminal Court Solicitor General; raise the pay of the Atlanta City Council and Mayor; change the pension laws for County employees, police and school teachers; permit the City of Atlanta to condemn property; establish qualifications for a Fulton County Police Chief; change the garbage disposal duties to the County Health Department;

Create a Stadium Authority; raise the pay of Assistant Solicitors General; raise the pay of County Treasurer; increase the terms of office of Councilmen at Hapeville and create a city manager form of government.

Thompson also signed a constitutional amendment authorizing the City of Atlanta to issue revenue certificates to repair waterworks.

DeKalb legislation signed by Thompson included measures which would:

Raise the pay of the City Court Judge and Solicitor in Decatur; permit the Grand Jury and Commissioner to review salaries of the Clerk of Superior Court, Ordinary, Tax Commissioner and Sheriff every two years instead of every four years; increase the salary of the County Commissioner; create a DeKalb School Bond Commission; permit the City of Decatur to assess costs of sewers; provide a new charter for Clarkston; cut the salary of the Mayor of Lithonia; permit the City of Lithonia to assess sidewalk paving costs, and extend the city limits of Lithonia.

Cobb County bills were signed that would permit the Marietta City Council to put license fees on more business firms, and would permit the City of Acworth to have a City Manager.

Rubinstein Wins Wide Acclaim In Concert Here

By HOWELL JONES
Constitution Music Editor

Artur Rubinstein, one of the greatest pianists of our time, Wednesday night held the season's largest audience spellbound throughout one of the most brilliant concerts heard in Atlanta in many years.

Playing in the masterful style that has given him rank near the top among the world's masters of the keyboard, the Polish artist time and again thrilled the overflow audience with his amazing dexterity and technical skill. The highlight of the entire program from the audience's point of view was an interpretation of Chopin's Polonaise, played as an intermission encore. In this the artist was at his best, displaying poise and a complete understanding of the score.

A group of other Chopin works, including two preludes, F Sharp Nocturne and Ballade in G Minor, also afforded the virtuoso an opportunity to exhibit his unusual versatility. Another feature was Rubinstein's superb performance of Beethoven's Sonata in E Flat Major, Opus 81 A. The program also included "Chaconne," by Bach-Busoni; "Saudades de Brazil," by Milhaud, and two works by Liszt.

'MIDGETS' TO ADULTS

Kite Contest To Attract 500 From 35 Centers Saturday

More than 500 kite-flying experts representing the 35 Atlanta playgrounds are expected to enter the annual kite-flying contest Saturday under the sponsorship of the Recreational Division of the City Parks Department.

Entrans from 25 white play centers will take to the air at 10 a. m. at the Polo Field at Piedmont Park, and the 10 Negro playgrounds will stage their contest beginning at the same time at Crogman Park.

Miss Virginia Carmichael, Director of the Recreational Division, and her aides Wednesday said they were ready and predicted the largest number of entries in history. Approximately 300 contested last year.

Classifications are provided from "midgets," those from six through 10 years of age, to adults, and there is a wide variety of events.

Midget events include the smallest, the unique and the highest flying. Juniors, those from 11 through 14, will vie for honors for the largest, the unique, and the highest flying. Seniors, those from 15 through 17, for the largest, the unique, and the highest flying, while boys over 17 will compete for the unique and the highest flying.

Entries must have been made by the person flying them. Any contestant may enter as many events in his classification as he chooses. The Parks Division will supply 100 yards of string for the high flying contests and it must be used. One helper will be permitted each entrant to assist in getting the kite in the air. From then on the flier must take over.

Judges for the Piedmont contest are Miss Frances Castleberry, Andy Marinous and J. H. Heggood.

Miss Carmichael is being assisted by aides Miss Billie Happoldt, Miss Jimmie Mims and Miss Frances Woodberry, all of the Recreation Division.

Each of the 35 playgrounds will select the best kite maker and flier and will seek top honors. Winners will get red, white and blue ribbons with gold stamping attesting their skill.

at an Illinois Central milk car. No one has been hit by any of the bullets.

State Police were sent Wednesday afternoon to the strike area, the corner of Louisiana east of the Mississippi River and north of New Orleans.

Picket lines appeared Wednesday in New Orleans for the first time. The lines were thrown up around two dairies by Dairy Workers' Local No. 270 (AFL).

State Police Supt. W. D. Atkins declared that if the officers already sent into the area could not handle the situation, "the entire State Police will be dispatched to assist them."

Two Illinois Central trains and a number of tank trucks have been halted by farmers, some of whom bore rifles or shotguns.

Atlantans Donate $122,150 In Red Cross Campaign

Atlantans had shelled out to the tune of $122,150 through noon Wednesday in the Red Cross Campaign.

Previous figures had been swelled by a report of the Employees' Division and the Public Employees' Division, which held a joint report meeting at the Henry Grady Hotel yesterday, as well as additional funds reported by the Initial Gifts Division.

The Employees' Division reported $21,915 additional subscriptions with the Public Employees' Division showing a report of $14,068 additional funds since the last report.

Principal speaker for the occasion was Robert B. Clower, Seaman Second Class, who is hospitalized at Lawson General Hospital, having received grave injuries aboard the USS New Jersey.

Clower recounted his experiences and the help received from the Red Cross in the Admiralty Islands, where soap, cigarettes, stationery, razors, sox and sweaters were given to service men. He told, also, of recreation provided by the Red Cross on Guadacanal for the injured, and the helpful parties and picnics for the mental cases on Guadalcanal, which were held separately from those for other patients. Clower explained how the Red Cross workers had met the hospital plane which flew him and his buddies from California to the Naval Hospital at Dublin, Ga., providing food and cheer at every stop. The Dublin Hospital had a crafts shop, where the Red Cross furnished all the materials for the convalescents.

"I certainly believe in and support the Red Cross, for I know from personal experience what it stands for and what it does," exclaimed Clower. "And I am going to give all I can of my next pay check, for I'll be contributing in appreciation for all they have done for me and my buddies."

Mrs. Mathews is touring the South, visiting Baha'i communities in different cities.

Region Six's Boy Scouts Coming Here

Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, and several hundred other leading Scouters of the Southeast will convene here this weekend for the annual meeting of Region Six, Boy Scouts of America, which includes Georgia, Florida and the Carolinas.

Dr. Fretwell, who succeeded James E. West as Chief Scout Executive in 1943, is also editor of Boy's Life, the national Scout magazine.

The regional session will open Saturday night at the Biltmore Hotel with a dinner meeting of 37 local Scout council presidents. C. L. Emerson, Regional Chairman, will preside.

Various phases of the Scouting program will be discussed at a series of meetings Sunday, and speakers will include Dr. Josiah Crudup, President of Brenau College; O. B. Evenson, Assistant National Director of Rural Scouting; Charles N. Miller, National Director of Special Field Projects, and others.

Dr. Herman L. Turner, Father Thomas J. Hughes and Dr. David Marx, Atlanta religious leaders, are on the program which will also be featured by installation of regional officers and presentation of Silver Antelope awards for outstanding leadership in Boy Scout work.

Big Mo's Larval Sister Reduced to Broken Scrap

PHILADELPHIA, March 26—(AP)—The 45,000-ton super-battleship Illinois started out to be a sister ship to the famed USS Missouri, on whose deck the Japanese agreed to unconditional surrender terms, but now it's nothing but broken pieces of scrap.

The vessel, one quarter completed on V-J Day, was scrapped at the Philadelphia Naval Base—the only one of six similar battleships of its type not completed. Congressional cuts in Naval appropriations prompted the scrapping order from the Navy Department.

You've heard a lot about the high cost of clothing

but have you been to Bond's lately?

Come on, have a good look. Things are happening. You've read how tough it is to find good sound quality at a sensible tariff. Now come and see one of the big exceptions. Flashing a line-up of earthbound prices is no great shakes—in itself. But to do it with better-than-ever quality—that, gentlemen, takes real doing these days. We'll show you handsome worsteds, weaves more expensive than any we've had in our history. We'll show you needlework second to none. We'll fit you in a manner worthy of the most snooty custom tailor. And we'll do it without taking your eye-teeth. No wonder more men wear Bond clothes than any other clothes in America.

DESPITE ITS SIZE, THIS SMALL TOWN WAS NO WHISTLE STOP FOR THE TRAIN

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 26—A freight train was stopped in the small town of Washington, near here, to supply its locomotive with water. But the valve on the huge railroad spout was stuck, so local firemen stretched 300 feet of hose from a fire hydrant to help the locomotive and its 50 cars get out of town.

The train went on its way, but the firemen didn't get back to their station for awhile. On the way out of town, sparks from the engine caused four brush fires, with firemen following dutifully along behind and putting them out one by one.

SOLONS SHOW COMMUNIST THE DOOR

'We Are Here To Stay,' Wrote Red, But Probers Didn't Read That Far

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP) In a thunderous scene the General Secretary o fthe Communist Party was ejected by a Congressional committee Wednesday because he refused to give any other name but Eugene Dennis.

Dennis, pink-cheeked and neatly mustached, appeared before the House Committee on Un-American Activities at his own request to oppose bills that would outlaw his party. He wore a red neck tie.

Dennis never got to the bills because the Committee insisted that he tell his former name and he insisted such questions were "irrelevant and incompetent."

The clashes grew louder until Chairman J. Parnell Thomas, Republican, New Jersey, shouted that Dennis was "through for today." The spectators applauded.

Chief Investigator Robert E. Stripling rushed over and handed Dennis a subpoena to come back April 9.

Dennis let it fall to the floor and told reporters he had not accepted it because the Committee had no right to issue it. Stripling told newsmen it had been served. He said Dennis can be cited for contempt if he fails to show up April 9.

Capitol police escorted Dennis out of the building as hecklers cried "Take him out."

Appearing at an afternoon session of the Committee, J. Edgar Hoover, Chief of the FBI, testified the Communist Party in this country is a "fifth column," far better organized than were Nazi fifth columns in Europe prior to the war.

"Communism in reality is not a political party," he said. "It is a way of life—an evil and malignant way of life. It reveals a condition akin to disease that spreads like an epidemic and, like an epidemic, quarantine is necessary to keep it from infecting the nation."

However, he cautioned the Committee against "any course of action which would give the Communists cause to portray and pity themselves as martyrs."

"The best antidote to Communism," he said, "is vigorous, intelligent, old-fashioned Americanism."

Stripling said during the morning hearing that the Committee has "considerable evidence" that Dennis "used a number of names both in the procurement of fraudulent passports and in his party activities."

Later Stripling told reporters Dennis was born in Seattle in 1905 under the name of Francis

MOPSY

Eugene Waldron. He said Dennis has also used the names Francis Xavier Waldron, Jr., Frank Waldron, F. E. W. Dennis, Paul Eugene Dennis, and merely "Milton."

The witness testified under oath: "I am known as Eugene Dennis. Whether my name is Smith or Jones or Cohen, my testimony will be valid and the truth."

He called Stripling an "underling" who couldn't dictate to him.

Five times he said he had been known as Eugene Dennis, "for a great, great many years."

He said, "I may or may not have taken out a passport under

X, Y, or Z. It has no bearing."

Finally the blowup came.

Stripling asked: "When and where were you born?"

Dennis said to Thomas, "Mr. Chairman . . ."

Thomas said sternly, "I want you to answer the question."

Dennis: "Did you ask any other witness that question?"

Thomas: "We're asking it of you."

Dennis: "The color of my hair is gray. I'm in my early 40s. . . ."

Thomas: "No, no, no! We don't want that! No, no. Serve a subpoena on this man. He's through for today. You're excused."

Dennis tried to offer his prepared statement for the record. Thomas refused to accept it.

When Stripling delivered the subpoena Dennis said curtly, "Give it to my counsel." Stripling kept thrusting it at him. It lay briefly on top of papers in Dennis' hands on the table. Stripling turned and told reporters the subpoena had been served.

As police led Dennis down a corridor of the House Office Building, reporters stopped the parade and Dennis told them:

"I will not accept that subpoena. You will find it on the floor of the Committee room. I challenge the authority of this Committee to issue a subpoena for three reasons.

"First, the Communist Party and Communists are not un-American.

"Second, they do not come under the jurisdiction of this Committee.

"Third, this Committee is unlawfully constituted. At least one member holds his office unlawfully, namely Mr. Rankin, who legally cannot be seated under the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution."

He meant Rep. Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, who did not attend Wednesday's hearing. Those two amendments say no State shall abridge the privileges of citizens nor deny the right of citizens to vote on account of race or color.

The statement which Dennis brought with him was already in the hands of reporters.

In it he said "We American Communists are here to stay." He denied they are foreign agents, or that the party has ever advocated the use of force and violence, or that it is a "conspiracy."

He said bills to outlaw the party are unconstitutional. His statement contained many quotations from Abraham Lincoln and references to Thomas Jefferson and Franklin D. Roosevelt. He said:

"I am jealous for my country's name abroad, and defend here the national security of the United States and the cause of world peace."

Washington Governor Advises His Citizens

PALM SPRINGS, Cal., March 26—(AP)—Gov. Mon C. Wallgren, of Washington, came up with some advice for citizens of his State Wednesday. Said he:

"They should pick up the same spirit Californians have in advertising and boosting their State."

The 56-year-old Governor and his wife, Mabel, arrived for an extended vacation, following close of a three-month legislative session.

He looked with pleasure on Palm Springs' sunshine, then remarked:

"Puget Sound is a Summer paradise, too."

Where Does This Leave FEPC?

There has been, and is, sincere objection to the FEPC (Fair Employment Practices Committee) from those who genuinely oppose discrimination on the basis of race or religion because of the historical fact that one cannot legislate morality, good will or tolerance. Such a law would operate well in those regions where there is no mass racial or religious conflicts. In regions where there are it would bring forth long and bitter strife.

Now we are wondering if the administration has not hoist itself by its own petard.

In the present "loyalty" campaign, which has its frightening aspects to the thoughtful person, the government has stated as follows:

"Working for the government is a privilege, not a right. The government is free to decide who shall and shall not work for it."

Therefore, says the President, no Communist may work for the government.

By the same token, private employment certainly has as much right as the government to say that the hiring of its employees is a privilege of the company involved, and not a right. It also may say that if the government is free to determine who shall and who shall not work for it, that private enterprise has an equal right to be equally articulate on the subject.

As for the standards which will be set to determine the loyalty of government employees, they come belatedly and, therefore, will be hastily drawn. If great care is not exercised they will be abused and many innocent, able and loyal persons will be unfairly treated. During the war the Communist infiltration in many worthy and patriotic organizations went unnoted for so long that they became, in fact, Communist front organizations. This will provide a field day for the Congressman or Senator who wants to publicize himself by attacking "Reds." No private citizen will be able to obtain the publicity with which to give equal prominence to his innocence.

By all means let us be sure that we have loyal employes. We should have had them long ago.

Yet let us have equal safeguards against the Congressman who regards Gerald L. K. Smith as the criterion of loyalty.

But, what we started out to ask was, where does this government decision about employment leave the FEPC?

Pleasant Theodore McCutchen

For 63 years, Pleasant Theodore McCutchen edited the Franklin News and Banner. And from the day when, as a youth of 18, he began operation of the paper until his death at 81 on yesterday, "Uncle Pat" was a never-failing source of leadership for his community and the State press. Mr. McCutchen was one of the founders and a past President of the Georgia Press Association. Up until a very few years ago, he had never missed a meeting of that organization. In his passing, one of the real patriarchs of the Georgia Fourth Estate has been lost.

Merge the Health and Sanitation Departments

The proposed merger of the City Sanitary Department with the City Health Department is a logical one and we trust Council will follow the recommendation of its ordinance committee in it.

The two departments perform closely allied governmental functions and their consolidation should mean better co-ordination and less duplication of effort.

Progressive government is no static thing. It should move constantly to increase its efficiency and reduce its expenditures as the opportunities are presented. In our opinion, merger of municipal health and sanitation departments is a step in the right direction.

More Expensive---But Wiser

Although committed to a policy of stringent economy in government, the Republican-dominated Senate the other day demonstrated that it is not hog-tied to the purse strings of the Treasury. It passed, unanimously and without debate, a bill to continue the essential activities of the Selective Service System until June 30, even though conscription ends this month. The House is expected to concur in the legislation this week.

The Senate action goes beyond President Truman's recommendations and is approximately $2,000,000 more costly. The Chief Executive had asked Congress for immediate liquidation of county draft boards and for central storage of Selective Service records. Under the bill as passed the draft boards and the clerical organization would be retained.

Unsettled world conditions at the present were not mentioned by the Armed Services Committee which recommended passage of the bill, but the Chairman, Sen. Chan Gurney, labeled it a form of insurance against any crisis in the next three months.

The basic reason underlying the Senate's action, however, appears to be acceptance of the probability that some form of universal military training will be approved by Congress. If so, it would be nothing short of foolish for the Government to demobolize the Selective Service System and dispose of its $5,000,000 worth of equipment, only to find itself in need of a similar organization a few months hence.

THE PULSE OF THE PUBLIC

The Constitution welcomes letters from its readers. They must be signed, should not exceed 200 words. We regret no letters can be returned.

Why Abuse Herman?

Editor Constitution: I am a Georgian, do not hail from any other State, and have lived all my life in Georgia. My grandfather went to war from Georgia, and never returned, leaving a wife and seven small children. My father was the eldest one, and if there ever was a true Georgian my father was one.

He believed in right at all times, and neither he nor my mother ever engaged in ugly remarks about other people at election time or any other time.

After I have heard so many ugly remarks said about Hon. Herman Talmadge I would like to say a few words in his behalf. He is an honorable man and offered his all for four long years on the dangerous seas. Why should he not want to keep on doing a great job for his home State? Is the Legislators are not the voice of the people, who is? They are elected by the people. Why abuse Mr Talmadge? If anyone else had been elected I wonder who would have complained?

MISS LUCY SEE.

Atlanta.

Greatest Fighter

Editor Constitution: In your estimation, who is or was the greatest fighter of all time, including all divisions? That is, who is or was the greatest fighter of all fighters? C. W. FRANKLIN.

Atlanta.

(Editor's Note: Thasos, a Greek gladiator, won the fighting championship and then defeated more than 2,000 others who tried to lift the crown from him, of which 1,425 were killed. He must have been the greatest fighter at all weights. In modern times, we would be unable to choose between Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis.)

Whom Is Pegler For?

Editor Constitution: Westbrook Pegler does not hesitate to criticize fellow Americans as to their treatment of the Germans. Of course this will be broadcast to the Germans, who will feel that Americans are without heart.

It seems to me that if Westbrook Pegler had condemned the Germans previously he would have a right to crticize, but he failed to use the power of his pen when they were exterminating millions of innocent souls for no reason whatsoever except that they wanted to use their bones for fertilizer and their worldly goods to enhance their own private fortunes.

Is it possible that Mr. Pegler is unmindful of what the Germans have done to the world at large?

While of course we should deal justly by the Germans and feed them, let's not overlook that some of our allies who fought on our side also need food and succor and should come first.

Atlanta. ARMAND MAY.

Training for Negroes

Editor Constitution: According to facts given in the November issue of the Alabama Education Association's Bulletin, and commented on by the Southern Press, "more than half the Negro children in Alabama quit school with one year of forma' education, and even that year is a short one of poor attendance, which, in general probability, achieves little if any results." What is true of Alabama is generally true of the entire Southland, where live 10,000,000 Negroes.

The Southland today is in a better position than it ever has been before to make industrial training opportunities possible to its Negro citizens. This is true for the reason that throughout the South there are large government plants that were used as Negro training centers in the recent war. Most of these have been abandoned and declared surplus property.

The millions of dollars that have been invested by the United States Government in establishing these training centers to win the war could be converted to no better use than that of giving sufficient industrial training to thousands of its people, so that they may be fitted to perform some definite service to the communities in which they live. It is our opinion that such industrial training centers would contribute far more to the general welfare of the Southland than any other project that could be undertaken at this time. Such centers would meet the actual needs of the Negro and the South in particular and the nation in general. S. J. PHILLIPS.

Mining The Acid Ores

What is happening in the South?

Are her problems as acute as her critics say?

Are those Southerners who love their region enough to want to correct its wrongs, who are partisan enough to hammer away at its follies and engage those who exploit those errors, fouling their own nest or merely seeking to get "publicity" in Yankee publications?

There is an interesting comment on the South and its problems in a Yankee publication which only a few hundred of the nation's 140,000,000 persons will read.

It is the Rockefeller Foundation Review for 1946. The President of that Foundation is the highly esteemed theologian and philosopher, Dr. Raymond B. Fosdick.

On Page 49 of that Review is a statement about the General Education Board. In the 44 years of its existence it has spent the tremendous sum of $287,049,529 on education—all within the limits of the United States. Of that amount more than $200,000,000 has gone to education for whites, more than $50,000,000 for Negroes.

The Board's principal is about exhausted. Last year the Foundation made a grant of $7,500,000 to the Board for its work during "the five-year period beginning in 1947."

In recent years, the Review declares, "the program of the Board has been almost exclusively confined to the promotion of education in our Southern States."

Why? It is fair to ask why that has been true. The Review explains in what to me is one of the fairest, yet kindest, analyses I have ever read. I quote:

"One need present no argument to establish the fact that the South, despite its known potentialities and its recognized achievements, lags seriously behind the rest of the United States in many essentials. Whether measured by available investment capital, effective economic opportunity, personal and public incomes, State and local political administrations, health and social welfare, or educational facilities, the comparative position of the Southern region is one of disadvantage. The presence of 10,000,000 Negroes in the population—the major part of the Negroes in the United States—imposes burdens unequaled in other parts of the country and complicates many undertakings which are fundamental to the progress of the South.

"While gratifying and truly significant advance has been made during the past 40 years in the development of educational institutions in this area, the need and the opportunity for the types of service the General Education Board has rendered, and under its charter is designed to render, have not substantially decreased during the life of this Board. Indeed, in some respects conditions in the South today are not as favorable as formerly. This is especially true in relation to the economic basis of Southern life. The South is predominantly rural and agricultural. The introduction of farm machinery, the heavy loss and depletion of agricultural lands and the drastic shrinkage of foreign markets for the leading cash crops of the area have dislocated and impoverished great numbers of the people and have restricted employment opportunities, private earnings and public revenues, with all the resultant limitations. Extensive readjustments in the economic life of the South, both agricultural and industrial, are now under way. The need for their intelligent guidance is paramount if the South is to find a basis for the support of its own cultural institutions; and it is only through research and education that the goal will be achieved."

I suggest a rereading of that friendly, factual statement.

Outside Interference God knows where we would be had it not been for "outside interference" of this type. The fact that ill-informed, publicity seekers have exploited our weaknesses, our lacks and our stubborn, often ridiculous pride, which often leads us to defend what we know is wrong, has led us to other excesses.

Some of our political leaders have exploited our lacks for their own exclusive benefit. One mines its acid ores of poverty, ignorance and violence, ignoring other ores, for personal gain. Others, equally harmful to the people and region, mine the same ore and smelt it into votes. They say, "The people come to laugh at your ignorance, your poverty, your food and your clothes."

But, despite all this, the South is moving forward and is better able to meet the severe dislocations of the period just now beginning—when the machine brings revolution to agriculture and industry moves in so slowly it may fail to prevent population migrations of the future, foreboding in their potential.

We are better off because of the Rockefeller Foundation, the General Education Board, the Rosenwald Fund and all the foundations which have poured wealth into our region. Our own local foundations, newly come to the scene, are beginning to aid.

There are still the critics who resent, because they do not understand, or do not wish to know, the truth.

The real Southerner will go forward with a stronger will, knowing there is such understanding as expressed by the Rockefeller Foundation Review for 1946.

Go back and read that analysis again.

Then let us resolve to go on to meet the future.

RALPH T. JONES

This Is Assuming A Little Too Much

MIAMI—It came with a degree of shock to read, in the morning paper, where some official or other was quoted as recommending that, for the next war, we establish bases on the planet Mars. The idea was, as I read it, that we would be able to swoop down on our enemy on earth with greater secrecy, hence greater surprise, if we swooped all the way from Mars.

And the promulgator of that idea argued that, what with jet propulsion, rockets and atomic fission, the day was not as far distant as most of us imagine when we'll be able to travel through space, to Mars and back again. Shades of Buck Rogers! Will our children, or grandchildren at latest, be able to buy a round-trip ticket, at an uptown ticket office for Mars, with stop-over privileges on the Moon and Venus?

What of Martians? The greater shock at reading such ideas, however, lay not in the calm faith in coming inter-planetary travel, but in the crass impudence of a plan which would drag another planet into the horrors of earthly war.

What of life on Mars? Without any scientific knowledge with which to argue, I'm yet inclined to the belief there is, in all probability, some form of life on Mars. And on other worlds and planets, in our own Solar system and in the infinite reaches of the universes.

What form life, on Mars for example, takes I cannot guess. It is probably different from any forms of earth life. Conditions are different and evolution requires only a slight touch of fate to divert it into what would be, to us, strange channels.

Well, whatever physical form life on Mars may take, who are we to assume there is not intelligence there? It, too, may be very different from our own intelligence. It may be behind us in development or it may be far beyond anything we have achieved.

Perhaps that intelligence, if it be there, would object to being dragged into our lethal quarrels. Perhaps, as a matter of fact, it would have power to protect itself from any invasion from earth. Perhaps the rocket borne expedition from earth would run into some opposition too great for it to successfully challenge.

Perhaps, who knows? Martians are even now preparing to establish their own bases on our earth and—again, who knows?—perhaps they have the ability to do it.

Let's Go Slow Let us, for our own sakes, go slow before we assume too much. God, the Creator, put man, as we know him, on earth and perhaps He intended the sons and daughters of Eve to stay on earth.

Perhaps He gave His other worlds to other creatures and perhaps they have fulfilled the Divine purpose much better than have we.

I read a story once of some strange living creatures from a distant world who visited earth long enough to kidnap, as a specimen, a human youth. They took him to their home planet and there he found that creatures in the form of men and women occupied the same role in life as do stabled horses on earth. They were harnessed and controlled by whip and rein and served as tame, docile beasts their owners and masters of a weird and unearthly intelligent race.

The reason why humans on this distant planet had never evolved beyond the state of animals? They had never possessed thumbs, that was all. Without thumbs they had never been able to grasp tool or weapon. Hence they had remained nothing but dumb beasts.

Better be careful about warlike expeditions to Mars, or any other planet.

We cannot guess what God, through evolution, has created there.

Anyway, if we could send a rocket, carrying explorers, to Mars, how would they start the return journey?

Spring Is Here, Tra-La, Tra-La

BILLY ROSE

Still Side by Side

Mrs. Laura Draper kept putting quarters in the piggy bank, and at the end of two years had enough for a two-week vacation in Florida. Cliff took her off to the station, bought her a magazine, and kissed her on the cheek. "Have fun," he told her, and went back to his desk at the box factory.

Mrs. Draper did. Her second day in Miami she met Everett Stone. The way the oil man looked at her in her green bathing suit did nice things to her morale. The next 12 days they saw a lot of sunshine and moonlight together. She liked the way Everett took her arm when they got caught in the crowd at the race track.

The morning she was due to go back to New York, Everett came around to her hotel to say goodbye. He handed her a package done up in ribbons. "A little going-away present," he said. "It's been a wonderful two weeks."

SHE OPENED the package, and a sumptuous sable scarf flew out of the box and around her neck.

"I can't accept this," she protested. But her eyes said, "Thank you."

From Miami to Jacksonville she thought only of Everett. From Jacksonville to Washington, Everett began to get mixed up with Cliff. From Washington to Pennsylvania Station she thought only of Cliff and how she could explain away the sable scarf.

At the station, she realized there was no explaining it away. She got an idea. She walked up to a pay locker, put a dime in the slot, stowed the sable scarf in the compartment, locked it and put the key in her pocketbook.

That night she made a big fuss over Cliff when he came home from the office. Halfway through dinner, she said, "By the way, I found a pay locker key at the station. If you get a chance tomorrow, see what's in the box. Might be something worthwhile. Finders keepers."

NEXT DAY she chewed up a perfectly good set of fingernails waiting for Cliff to get home. It shaped up like a perfect scheme. Cliff would find the sables and come bouncing into the house, as he used to when he brought her presents the first gay days of their marriage.

Cliff was an hour late that night. When he finally showed up, he was carrying something wrapped in paper. "Getting a little sloppy around the waistline," he mumbled, revealing a bathroom scale.

She made herself wait until dessert before she asked, "Did you get a chance to look in the locker?"

Her husband looked at her in a funny way. "It was nothing but a pair of old rubbers. Not my size."

Even her marriage didn't seem as important as the fuzzy necklace. She went back into the living room and exploded, "There were no rubbers in that box! There was a sable scarf. What did you do with it?"

CLIFF PUT down his paper. "I gave it to a girl," he said slowly. "I met her while you were away. We took in a few shows and went to a couple of nightclubs. Nothing very important."

"You gave her my sable scarf?" screeched Laura.

Cliff nodded. "As a going-away present. She left for Cleveland this evening. That's what made me late for dinner. I must have been . . ."

Suddenly his eyes narrowed. "Say," he demanded. "Where did you get a $2,000 sable scarf?"

Laura and Cliff decided to be smart. They laughed a little, cried a little, and then laughed some more. Then they went out and got tight.

According to my fat little friend with the bow and arrow, their toothbrushes are still hanging side by side in the Draper Apartment on East Seventy-Second.

JACK TARVER

About the Bees And the Flowers...

The Georgia Legislature has passed a bill prohibiting diseased bees from coming into the State.

That Act will be harder to enforce than Volstead's.

Imagine a queen bee's outrage at being subjected to the indignity of a physical at the hands of a stranger.

And where'll they get the stranger? Will the State advertise: WANTED AT ONCE, 5,000 Grade-A Bee Inspectors?

Overnight the universal query among Georgians could change from "Who's your Governor?" to "What's buzzing, Cousin?"

With blockades on all highways and railroads at the State line, Georgia conceivably can keep out shipments of undesirable bees . . . But what about the fly-by-night ones?

Bee-legging and drone-running may develop into a honey of a racket. But let those who engage therein take care lest not only the customer get stung.

GLADSTONE WILLIAMS

Now It's Up To the Red Hunters

WASHINGTON—President Truman has evidently decided to go all out in his fight on Communism.

After laying down the new policy with respect to aiding Greece and other countries which are resisting the Red doctrines of Moscow, Mr. Truman has now, issued an edict to purge the Government service of any and all disloyal and subversive employees.

The purge will be directed not only at Communists, but fellow travelers in any "totalitarian, Fascist, or subversive organization." Also, it will be aimed at those belonging to, or in "sympathetic understanding" with, organizations seeking to deny constitutional rights to others or to "alter the form of Government of the United States by unconstitutional means."

The country will applaud the President's order because, if there are any subversive elements in Government, they should be rooted out. It is a preposterous thought that the Government itself should be harboring persons who advocate its overthrow or should be unsympathetic with the democratic system under which we live.

Clamor But, as regards the issue of Communism in Government, it is seriously to be doubted that the circumstances warrant all of the ballyhoo that has been given the subject.

Mr. Truman probably felt compelled to act because of the clamor raised in Congress in recent years on the score of Communist infiltration in Government.

For years the old Dies Committee of the Lower House thrived on raising a scarecrow of Communism. Its members, for the most part, were so obsessed with the idea that many of them gave the appearance of looking under their beds every night for Communists before retiring.

Republicans picked up the issue and sought to sell it to the country. They actually have succeeded to a point. An effort has been made to have the country believe that the Government is honeycombed with Communists and fellow travelers.

Actually, that is far from the truth. With the Federal Government the vast machine it has grown into, it is natural to suppose that a few Commies have slipped into the service.

But it is ridiculous to think that the Government is a hotbed of such activities. When the facts are considered it can be seen how absurd are the charges.

Requirements Employment in the Government service is obtained in one of two ways; either through appointment or through the Civil Service.

Civil Service requirements in determining eligibles call for rigid examinations, followed by an investigation as to a person's background and qualifications.

Appointments to the service are made largely as political patronage, which means that applicants for jobs are recommended by responsible political leaders—Senators, Congressmen, Governors of States, and national committeemen of the party in power.

Regardless of the method of employment, every candidate for a Government post, big or little, is the subject of close screening.

It is conceivable, of course, that a few subversives and fellow travelers slip in from time to time, but the idea that they have been able to get through in any considerable number is preposterous on the face of it.

Moreover, if they did get in and committed any overt act to reveal their identity, they would immediately become targets of attack from those seeking their ouster.

Takes the Ball It is hardly likely that President Truman could be deceived by the situation. He has been too long associated with Government to suppose that he has been taken in by the outcry of those who have raised a bugaboo over Communism in the Federal service.

There is no reason to believe that he is concerned in the slightest over the possibility of Communists making inroads in the Government. Certainly no responsible Government has any such concern.

What he is doing is taking the ball away from the Red baiters and those who have sought to raise a phony issue. In effect, he has said, all right, if there are Communists in the Government, let's find out who they are and get rid of them. He has given the FBI the assignment of locating them.

There probably won't be many fellow travelers exposed as a result of the White House edict. But what the President has done will tend to put the quietus on all of the false agitation that has been raised.

It will be up to the Red baiters to produce the Communists who should be ousted or shut up. Not many will be produced.

What is bad about it all is that a witch-hunt will be launched that will probably be injurious to some innocent persons. There is the danger of the finger of suspicion being put on honest Government workers who will not deserve it. Most witch-hunts result in that.

The Fear That Ripples Beneath the Calm

WASHINGTON—The visitor who remembers the hectic, driving Washington of the war years will hardly recognize this placid town today. Work still goes on, but there is no frenzy in it. Around the War and Navy Departments its hard to find a man at his desk all the time, now. He is out wandering up and down the hall, passing the time of day with his friends for a moment. The jobs are still there, and they require the hand and brain of a man to do them, but they don't take all his time any more. There are little breathing spaces when he can put his feet on the desk and scent the first warm winds of Spring as they sweep down the hall, bearing the scent of jonquils.

Yet, underneath this surface air of serenity you sense a tension, an anxiety, a fear. I do not pretend to be the type of writer who can spend a day or two in a strange place and then come away delivering pontifical lectures about it. But in Washington you do feel that sense of hidden unrest—of waiting for something big—and bad—to happen.

Rest There are men who will tell you, and they speak with the utmost sincerity and conviction, that the war just ended was the end of no war at all. It was merely a breathing space, a rest before we must return to battle.

Against whom? Against Russia, of course, they say. The Russians have no other idea, but that they some day must fight us, and all their diplomacy is based on the one aim of meeting us and beating us and thereby ruling all the world.

And when will this new war break? That depends, they say. The Russians have it planned for 1970. By then, they know, their fecund races will have outstripped our population and their armies in the field will vastly outnumber the best we can do. By then their factories, their industrial production, will be as great as ours, if blood and sweat can bring them to that peak.

They will play for the time, for the 20 years they believe they will need to be ready. They will make many concessions. Yet, defying us and the United Nations, they will stand firm when the issue interferes too greatly with their plans.

But what of our atom bomb, you ask? Will they go to war in the face of that weapon? The answer you'll get is that they will, for they will have their own by then, if indeed they do not already know its secret. The invention of armor which would turn a pike did not stop war. The invention of gun powder which would propel a bullet through armor did not stop war. Nor will the atom bomb stop war, terrible as it is.

Get Ready What then can we do to be saved? Nothing, except get ready. Nothing, except accept the facts, look at them realistically, and during the time left to us accept the fact that only by preparing for another war, the biggest and the worst we have ever known, can we insure peace. The only thing that can save us is strength. If we are weak, we are sure to be attacked. If we are attacked, we may be destroyed.

There are forces among us which wish to see us remain weak, complacent and blind. The raid on Communists in Government, they will tell you here, is no mere witch-hunt. The Communists are there. They are in high places. They are known. Whether or not the big ones will be rooted out and exposed or not, remains to be seen. If certain big names are not turned up—there are those who will know that the search failed, or stopped short of its mark.

Few people here will say these things out loud, even though they feel that the people should know. The man who will speak out will bring down upon his head not only the wrath of the Communists, but the wrath of well meaning seekers after peace, who denounce any honest appraisal of the facts as sword-rattling.

Maybe, they say, if we ignore the threat and lie still, pretending not to breathe, the danger will go away. But many an o'possum, with the hound dog's jaws crunching down on his neck, could tell you that that won't work.

Pets Own Their Master

"How many pets do you have?" asks the friend who has been following these columns, and we proceed to mention the dogs, cats, the geese, and if he is an especial friend we will include the birds of long association, Old Bee and Pewee, the cows, Pinky, the hog, and a few more.

And we talk on and on just as though we owned the pets when as a matter of simple truth, the pets own us, lock, stock and barrel. The late Dudley Glass, Constitution columnist and long-time friend of ours, mentioned this years ago, after a visit to Yellow River. He remarked in his column that the dogs owned the Copes. Why the fact did not take hold of us is hard to explain.

THIS WINTER has been a hard one on the farm. Not that it has been so terribly cold but that it has been so consistently cold and so wet. One quick dip of the thermometer down into the "teens" froze up our pipes and the residue of clay within them, and they haven't cleared up yet. Well, with constant cold weather and a poor water supply, there wasn't much inducement to remain at the farm this Winter. There wasn't a hope of getting a plumber this far from Atlanta and there are no plumbers in our own county seat town, so the sensible thing would have been to move into Atlanta for the Winter.

But this never occurred to us. Why? There are the pets. The birds require water, even in Winter, and they require feed, especially in Winter. It is the only way to keep them at home during the Winter. So with old Ghandi and Goosey. They could probably scrape up a living around the front and side yards and could dip down under the kudzu duff and scratch up a worm or two, but somehow you just don't feel right about doing it this way.

AND THERE are the cats. Dinty is never without a brood of kittens and there is always some member of the brood that we like particularly, and we want to bring him up right. The dogs could go with us to town but they become so bored with the situation there it is positively painful.

So there you are. We don't own our pets; they own us. Even the shrubs and bushes and young trees can't get along too well without us, or so we believe. We are the servants; they are the guests.

But come to think of it, we wouldn't have it any other way. "Man, at his best, is a servant," we have been told repeatedly. This must be true where pets are concerned. True and very "satisfactual."

WESTBROOK PEGLER

A Test For Communism

Until a few days ago our Supreme Court held that a person could cooperate with the Communists or any other group committed to the violent overthrow of our Government, associate with them and enlist their help and still be no Communist provided we could not prove that he personally advocated that final purpose of such enemies. The American people had to prove that a person so accused had this final purpose in his own mind. The people did prove it in this case to the satisfaction of the lower courts, but the Supreme Court wouldn't believe it.

But now look.

The same court now tells us that a man may be adjudged a Communist if he just changes his mind on a given question.

This came down in the case of a New York lawyer who was fired from an important job with the War Manpower Commission because he had been active in a thing called the American peace mobilization. This was one of those letterhead and propaganda outfits which sprouted in New York when Hitler and Stalin became allies in their noble joint resistance to the foul aggression of imperial Poland. It carried on, opposing our own military and industrial preparations for war and Roosevelt's policy of assistance to Great Britain and France until suddenly, in June, 1941, Hitler, that double-crossing, bloody-handed despot, jumped on Stalin and the peace-loving Soviet Government. Then, within a few days, it changed its name to the American People's Mobilization and hollered for help for Russia and Great Britain. The war ceased to be a Polish and British imperialistic war and became a people's war. Curiously, throuhout the life of the American Peace Mobilization, it found itself on the side of those vehement Americans such as Charles Lindbergh who were called Fascists because they also thought we ought to keep out of the mess, and continued to say so right down to the hour of Pearl Harbor.

A LONG TIME after Pearl Harbor, Elmer Davis, our own Director of War Propaganda, said he had devised his own personal method of deciding whether a person was a Communist or pro-Communist. Anyone who switched over on the war issue when Russia was attacked was. Now that test has become law. The United States Civil Service Commission adopted it and invoked it as a reason to fire this lawyer, the two lower Federal courts approved it and now the Supreme Court has refused to consider the fellow's appeal. This means in very practical effect that the Supreme Court, as of this moment, recognizes the Davis test and regards the decisions of the Commission, the district court and the Court of Appeals as legal and just. However, this thing was done under a special wartime regulation of the Civil Service Commission, so perhaps the same fellow would be vindicated in terms of peace. I thought Davis' test was all right long before he propounded it. I applied it to Mrs. Roosevelt's friend, Joe Curran, the President of the National Maritime Union, and to other friends of herself while she and Mr. Big were giving them plenty of character. But I always thought it was weak law because it meant that a person couldn't change his mind. My way would have been to keep the Communists out of the Government way back there, and the fellow in this case got in in 1935 and hung on until 1944. You can do it without violating any law or anybody's rights if you have a mind to. You may have noticed that those people whom Roosevelt wanted to keep out were kept out, such as Herbert Hoover, Jim Farley, Robert Moses and Lindbergh. So don't tell me he and she didn't want Communists in our Government.

Now we would be in a terrible fix if we all could be adjudged Communists and traitors just because we agreed with the Communists on some one issue or a number of propositions. Forgive me if you can, but I agree with the Communists and Henry Wallace, who agrees with them almost entirely as well as I can judge, that we don't belong in that mess in Greece and ought to get out of Europe as fast as we can. My reasons seem not to be the same, but we do agree on the proposition.

The Communists and Wallace think President Truman's proposal is a step toward war. So do I. But I think also that war is inevitable with Russia because it is so written in the book of Lenin and the book of Stalin and I figure that we ought to reorganize our country and our strength instead of sprawling all over a lot of no-account outposts and squandering our efforts on debilitated nations and peoples whom we can't support anyway. Yes, squandering our efforts. Squandering the work of our people. This venture and others that would surely follow take money. Our Government puts up the money. Where does it come from? From our income taxes. Where do the taxes come from? They come off the pay which you earn by working.

BUT I NEVER knowingly associate or have any truck with Communists. They are enemies of my country and therefore my enemies and I say our constitution should not be invoked to protect persons who know what they are up to and "co-operate" with them in activities which are merely preparatory to the bloody insurrection of the future. All their activities are bent to that final purpose and I say anyone who helps them in the preparatory work is one of them by intentional association. A pick-and-shovel man is paid off and gone away by the time the roof is finished, but you wouldn't say he didn't knowingly take part in the building of a house.

THOMAS L. STOKES

How Far Will They Carry the Purge?

WASHINGTON—Maybe there are a few Communists in the Government and perhaps a few more "fellow-travelers," though it is doubtful that there can be many with all the investigations and screening for securtiy purposes during the war.

What we once knew around here as "New Dealers" were constantly called "fellow-travelers" by many people. But most of the "New Dealers" are gone now, out of the Government. Some few have done handsomely for themselves in the ways of free enterprise by capitalizing upon their experience in government and their contacts in the practice of "law" here, and are highly respectable now.

As anyone who covers news in this city knows, the background of government here now, by and large, is comfortably Middle West and Southern. This transformation was accomplished by the Missouri gentleman in the White House who has been so successful, indeed, that he has become a hero of sorts even to conservative Republicans who say nice things about him.

BUT REPUBLICAN political strategists still continue the needling process of the last campaign, which was to try to tie the label of "Communism" on the whole Democratic Party, and Democratic political strategists are seemingly sensitive about that.

So we have Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach advocating outlaw of the Communist Party, to which Attorney General Clark chipped in with his "me, too." And we have Gael Sullivan, Executive Director of the Democratic National Committee, asking National Chairman Carroll Reece of the Republican Party to join in a statement indorsing President Truman's "foreign policy to stop Communistic agression," the prize political faux pas of this turbulent season.

And, finally, there was President Truman's executive order setting up an elaborate system for checking an re-checking every Government employee.

THE "PURGE," as it is called, has its safeguards, its apologists point out, in that it gives those accused of disloyalty an opportunity for a hearing. But so broad seemingly is the power it confers upon the Attorney General to define what types of persons may be fired that it raises questions, both directly and by its implications, about the fundamental rights of American citizens.

Tom Clark may use it with discretion. But he may not be Attorney General more than a couple of years longer. It is not pleasant to recall the "Red raids" after World War I conducted by Atty. Gen. A. Mitchell Palmer, a Democrat, nor some of the activities during the regime of his successor, Harry M. Daugherty, a Republican.

With all the money to be provided for the new loyalty check system, and all the help, it is likely that Government departments and agencies can successfully round up every Communist and "fellow-traveler" in Federal agencies.

But how far may it go beyond that, and in other directions from other sources, with the encouragement it gives to persons who do not perhaps have the same standards as President Truman?

It was immediately an open invitation to Rep. Cox, Democrat, Georgia, who said that he would try to defeat the appropriation for the salary of David Lilienthal as Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission and thus prevent him from holding that office. Similarly the House Appropriations Committee deleted funds for the salary of Edgar L. Warren, head of the Labor Department's Conciliation Service, and his regional directors, raising another spurious "Red" issue against Mr. Warren. This raises a challenge to the President's appointive power which strong presidents in the past have resisted with all their might to uphold the prestige of that high office.

INTERESTING and significant, too, was the testimony before the House Un-American Activities Committee by James F. O'Neil, National Vice Chairman of the American Legion's Americanism Commission and Police Chief of Manchester, N. H. He would go beyond banning the Communist Party and other measures and also investigate "writing," in which, he said on inquiry, he included "literature."

Shall we begin to gather the books and pile them up in front of the Capitol and apply the torch?

City To Move April 1 To Enforce Building Laws on Fire Hazards

By ALBERT RILEY

A warning to Atlanta building owners to comply with the City's safety laws or face prosecution has been sounded by O. Marvin Harper, City Building Inspector, who said Wednesday the City will start cracking down April 1 against violators of construction codes who have made no effort to correct existing fire hazards.

Hundreds of Atlanta buildings have been inspected since the disastrous Winecoff Hotel fire, and owners have been given 30 days to correct hazardous conditions found by the inspectors.

"Court action will be instituted immediately in Recorder's Court," Harper said, "against property owners who have received these 30-day notices by registered mail and have made no progress by April 1 toward correcting their building's defects."

COURT ACTION NEXT

Harper explained that court action would be taken against those property owners under the City's nuisance law which covers conditions in buildings perilous to human life.

The law requires abatement of a nuisance. It can force the closing of certain businesses, including hotels, where such nuisances exist, Harper said.

The Building Inspector said many property owners whose attention has been called to hazards in their buildings, are cooperating with this Department and genuinely trying to correct the defects as quickly as possible. Many others have been non-cooperative, however, and some have ignored the City's notice to comply with the building laws.

When court action is instituted against them, Harper pointed out, such cases will be a matter of public record and exposed to the glare of publicity.

REMINDER TO OWNERS

The Building Inspector also pointed out it is time for hotels, hospitals and apartment buildings to start correcting defects that have necessitated their employing night watchmen under the terms of a city ordinance adopted shortly after the Winecoff fire.

The night watchman ordinance was a temporary stop-gap measure designed to afford some measure of protection for human life until adequate improvements could be made in building construction.

Harper said the Fire Department has notified his office of 115 buildings that have been ordered to hire night watchmen and have complied with the order.

But, the Building Inspector says, he cannot feel easy about those 115 buildings just because night watchmen have been employed, when fire hazards continue to exist and adequate exits are still lacking.

30-DAY NOTICES

"This Department will proceed to serve 30-day notices on those 115 property owners," Harper said, "requiring them to abate their nuisances—in other words, to correct the defects that have made the employment of night watchmen necessary."

Harper said a number of the city's hotels have already started improvements needed to make their buildings conform with safety laws, but some others have shown no co-operation.

The city's recently amended building code is little different from the old one, Harper said, except that it is more flexible. Its retroactive provisions affecting existing buildings are stronger.

Meanwhile, the Building Inspector is proceeding under the city's nuisance laws, hoping to avert another Winecoff disaster before all of Atlanta's buildings can be made safe for human occupancy.

County Manager To Control Police Department---Doyal

County Commissioner R. L. "Shorty" Doyal Wednesday denied rumors that the Fulton County Police will not be under the County Manager and the new County Manager would come from an elected official already in the government of Fulton County or Atlanta.

"Although Fulton County Police members cannot be fired by the County Manager for political reasons, the Police Department will be under the Manager's control," he said in a speech to the Atlanta Claims Association at the Robert Fulton Hotel.

"Other rumors that the County Manager will come from a County or an Atlanta elected official already holding office are also untrue.

"The County Manager Bill as passed by the Legislature specifies that the Manager must not be someone holding office," he said.

Doyal said, however, he would like to see someone familiar with the County be given the post.

FOR SWEET CHARITY: A FLIP

Fabulous Philanthropist Visits Dental Clinic Here

By MARJORY SMITH

Harmon L. Blackburn's lifelong ambition is a negative one. He puts it this way: "I don't want to end up as the richest man in my cemetery!"

He goes about fulfilling the ambition in a practical way. To date, Blackburn, who is Chairman of the Mann Chemical Corporation, of Bradley Beach, N. J., long known as one of America's quietest philanthropists, has given away more than 10 million dollars to charity.

In Atlanta for the Thirty-Fourth Thomas P. Hinman Clinic of the Fifth District Dental Society, "Gen." Blackburn Wednesday showed a characteristic ingrown distaste for the limelight. But his Atlanta friends were swapping tales of the fabulous philantropist, who gave away his restaurant and his Summer home, and indulges in gambling for sweet charity's sake.

Blackburn lives on an island in Interlaken, N. J., and his Philadelphia penthouse housed movie-star USO troupers during World War II. He is known to socialite friends as a host whose favors are likely to be star sapphires. They think of him as a world traveler who has visited Europe 30 times and toured Russia, China and Japan.

But, more often, they have reason to recall Blackburn as the flexible-fingered gentleman who "flipped" to see who would underwrite a worthy charity—and who, if he "won," matched funds, whether they were $100 or $100,000.

A native New Yorker, he is a former owner of Bookbinder's Restaurant in Philadelphia. During World War II he treated servicemen there, turned over his daily receipts to USO—and finally made an outright gift of the restaurant to a charity which realized $500,000 from the sale.

Blackburn gave away his Summer home to a hospital. He celebrated his last birthday by donating $14,500 in a single day to local charities—bringing his 1946 "home charity" gifts to a $75,000 total. During the war he worked extensively toward British and Russian war relief—yet remembered to write a $25,000 check for a deserving Community Chest and to offer a $2,500 award to a brotherhood essay contest.

Grafters? Blackburn doesn't have a worry on that score. A graduate of Columbia University and New York University law schools, the philanthropist has practiced corporate law in New York for the past 45 years and has an extremely shrewd idea of where his money will do the most good. The man who has given away $10,000,000 declares:

"I'm not an easy mark!"

Check Agreement Ends, Banks Notified

State Auditor B. E. Thrasher, Jr., Wednesday notified the Atlanta Clearing House Association that the agreement permitting him to approve salary checks during the gubernatorial controversy has ended.

Thrasher arranged to carry on normal functions of government when the Governorship was in doubt by having the banks in the Association agree to honor checks approved by him.

The State Auditor pointed out that the banks, by their co-operation, prevented the "complete shutdown" of State government for a 60-day period.

Holdup, Gun Fire, Wreck Lead to Jail

Constitution State News Service.

GAINESVILLE, March 26—An armed holdup, a shooting scrape and a pursuit which ended in an automobile wreck resulted Wednesday in the arrest of David A. Rector, of Blue Ridge, according to Hall County Sheriff W. A. Crow.

Sheriff Crow stated he was holding the Blue Ridge man for Lumpkin County police while he investigated reports Rector had entered a restaurant near Neel's Gap, held up the proprietor and clerk at pistol point, securing between $200 and $300, and then fled in an automobile belonging to E. W. Ash, of Clermont, who, with his wife and child, were eating in the restaurant.

The Hall County police officer reported Mrs. Ash had told him Rector fired at her family, but the bullet struck a chair.

Ash and restaurant employees pursued Rector and captured him when his automobile was demolished, the Sheriff reported.

Cameras and sport goods are now in demand. Constitution Want Ads will command cash for them.

George West Voices Fight on Rent Control

By LORRAINE NELSON,
Constitution Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, March 26—Atlanta's George West, prominent in the housing and banking businesses, put the United States Chamber of Commerce on record Wednesday before both the Banking and the Currency Committees of Congress in opposition to extension of rent control and expansion of Federal public housing in the United States.

Chairman of the Civic Development Committee of the Chamber, West also is President of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association and of the West Lumber Company, both of Atlanta. He told the House Banking and Currency Committees that rent control should be ended by Sept. 1, 1947. Testifying before the Senate Committee, he said Federally subsidized housing, as contemplated in the Wagner-Ellender-Taft bill, was part of a "plot to put the Government permanently in the housing business."

"When that happens," he declared, "this country won't be safe."

On both issues, West was challenged by Fiorella LaGuardia, former Mayor of New York and Chairman of the National Fair Rent Committee, who also appeared before the Committees during the day.

"The disaster will be just as great in September if rent controls are ended then as it would be if they were lifted now," LaGuardia declared. He said the effect might be greater because many tenants, without controls, would be evicted and would be "in a pretty fix" with Winter approaching.

Answering West's assertion on public housing, LaGuardia said "private business has had 150 years to provide decent houses for the low-income groups of America and they have not. Whether we like it or not, Government must step in to provide adequate and livable dwellings for at least 30 percent of our people."

West urged the House Banking and Currency Committees to repeal remaining controls now exerted on the housing industry through the Patman Act, better known as the Veterans Emergency Housing Act. The Atlantan also urged a companion act ending the National Housing Agency.

Answering a question of Rep. Wright Patman, Democrat, of Texas, West said a veteran could build a two or three-bedroom house, complete with all fixtures, for as low as $7,500.

Veto Primary Bill, League Asks Thompson

The Georgia League of Women Voters Wednesday appealed to Acting Gov. Thompson to veto the White Primary Bill, declaring "it is extremely dangerous to have primaries unregulated by law."

Thompson, who terms the measure a "No Primary Bill," has said he would act on it Friday.

The League sent Thompson the following letter:

"The Board of the Georgia League of Women Voters and delegates to its biennial Council meeting voted today to send a plea to you to veto the White Primary Bill.

"As you know, the League has opposed the Bill before and since its introduction. The League considers that it is extremely dangerous to have primaries unregulated by law; to have the voters' lists for the primaries made up by Democratic committees uncontrolled by State law; to scrap in one bill legal protections passed over 50 years.

"It is the reasoned opinion of the League that it was not made clear to the people that every Georgian's right to vote in the Primary would be endangered with the passage of the White Primary Bill."

Tennessee Girl Object of Search

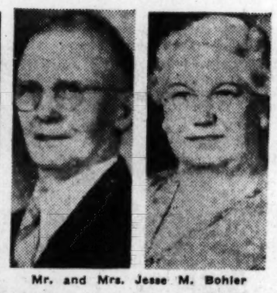

Billie Jean Davis, missing from Rockwood, Tenn., since Jan. 17, is still being sought by her father, Lee Davis, of Crossville, Tennessee.

Billie Jean Davis

She lived for a short time in Atlanta and it is thought she may still be in this vicinity. She is five feet, five inches tall, weighs 130 pounds, has blonde, naturally curly hair, blue eyes, fair complexion and very white and almost perfect teeth. She was wearing a blue skirt, light blue sweater, green coat and brown and white saddle oxfords when last seen in Rockwood.

Anyone knowing of her whereabouts is requested to contact Lee Davis, telephone No. 69-R, Crossville, Tenn., or to notify the Crossville police. A $500 reward is being offered for information leading to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Bohler

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Bohler, of 4543 Roswell Rd., lifelong residents of Fulton County, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Friday.

Bottlers Hold Conference Here

Bottlers of carbonated beverages from Georgia, South Carolina and Florida are holding a two-day regional conference at the Biltmore Hotel "to discuss current management problems." These bottlers are members of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages.

At the session Wednesday, the bottlers saw a series of motion pictures designed to show that wage and promotion policies in the bottling industry are in line with those of other industries.

SALLY FORTH Says:

Marvin McDonald Honored By Atlanta Music Club

March 26 was certainly a red-letter day for Marvin McDonald and one he shall long remember. For the most part, the day was uneventful. In the evening, Marvin took his usual seat in the City Auditorium to hear the Arturo Rubinstein concert. Just before Mr. Rubinstein took his place at the piano, Virginia (Mrs. T. Erwin) Schneider, the popular and gifted President of the Atlanta Music Club, stepped out on the stage wearing a stunning flame-colored gown, presumably to announce next season's concerts. She was introduced to the enthusiastic audience by Marvin, who is the manager of the concert series of the Music Club.

With subtle charm, Virginia took Marvin's hand as she drew close to the microphone and, instead of making the announcement which the audience expected, she introduced Marvin, describing him as the Music Club's finest friend and adviser and as their selection of one of the city's most outstanding citizens. Marvin, presumably, was overcome by Virginia's effusiveness, though secretly deeply pleased by her complimentary words. Then, to his utter amazement and delight, she presented him with a stunning cigarette case, engraved inside with the following: "The Marvin E. McDonald Scholarship Fund."

To Marvin alone goes this signal honor, in deep appreciation of what he means and has meant to the Music Club since the Club's friendship with him began during the presidency of Mrs. Howard C. Smith in 1935.

Virginia has just returned from New York, where she and Marvin interviewed the outstanding managers of the country, after which she was even more impressed with Marvin's ability and the esteem and respect in which this eminent impresario is held by both managers and artists throughout the country. "Without Marvin," says Virginia, "the Atlanta Music Club could never corral the marvelous series of musical events and concerts which have made Atlanta the cultural center of the South."

SHE'S DONE IT AGAIN!

Climaxing the whirl of parties given in honor of Julia Henerbry, of Roanoke, Va., who is the attractive guest of Angelique (Mrs. Isaac C.) Kidd, will be the tea to be given this afternoon by Renee Fletcher at her home on Fuller Road. Helen Beaudry entertained yesterday at a small informal luncheon at her home in the Biltmore Apartments for Julia, who returns to her home tomorrow.

"Papoos," as Renee is affectionately called, is known for her originality and knack of giving unusual parties, and she has done it again! The cleverly worded invitations to meet Julia were written entirely in French on pale blue note paper with dainty white Wedgwood figures done in relief across the top of the page.

MR. AND MRS. WOOD ARRIVE

Charming and popular additions to Atlanta society are Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wood, who arrived here recently from Albany, N. Y. They are building an attractive home on Arden Road, which they expect to occupy within a few months. Their arrival here is more or less a home-coming for Mrs. Wood, who is the former Gertrude Dickey, of this city, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Dickey, who now reside in Watertown, N. Y. "Trudy," as she is affectionately called by her intimates, is of the lovely brunette type of beauty and attended Washington Seminary, later completing her education at Mount Vernon College in Washington, D. C. Her husband, known to his many friends as "Sandy," is a native of Albany, N. Y., is a graduate of Princeton, and is now associated with the Aetna Insurance Company.

PASSING PARADE

Glimpsed at the MacKenna-Northcutt wedding Tuesday evening . . . Mrs. Cason Callaway, of LaGrange, looking lovely in a pink and black print dinner gown. . . . Mrs. Floyd McRae stunning in a dinner gown which featured a red background printed in blue, white and green flowers. . . . Mrs. Charles Rawson wearing an exquisite gray gown. . . . NEW OFFICERS OF WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN SERVICE GROUP—Officers of the North Georgia Woman's Society of Christian Service elected Wednesday at the seventh annual session are, front, Mrs. Arthur Styron, of Atlanta, Vice President and, left, Mrs. Stewart Colely, of Grantville, President; top row, left to right, Mrs. H. A. Carithers, of Winder, Secretary of Status of Women; Mrs. L. M. Autrey, of Acworth, newly elected Recording Secretary and retiring President, and Mrs. H. B. Trimble, of Atlanta, Secretary of Spiritual Life. The three-day session is being held at Druid Hills Methodist Church.

Two Honored By Methodist Women's Unit

By THOMAS M. ELLIOTT

A surprise feature of the opening day's program of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service in the North Georgia Conference at Druid Hills Church Wednesday was the election of Bishop Arthur J. Moore and Mrs. L. M. Awtrey, President for 11 years, to honorary life membership.

At the conclusion of his inspirational address, Bishop Moore was presented the honorary membership by Mrs. Awtrey in the name of the Conference. To her surprise, then, Mrs. Awtrey was presented with an honorary life membership by Mrs. Stewart Colley, of Grantville, who Wednesday was named President of the Conference.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

In addition to the election of Mrs. Stewart Colley, of Grantville, as President, other officers named Wednesday were:

Mrs. Arthur J. Styron, of Atlanta, Vice President; Mrs. E. W. Brogdon, of Atlanta, Treasurer; Mrs. R. H. McDougall, of Atlanta, Recording Secretary; Mrs. C. G. Boland, of Atlanta, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Louise Braselton, of Atlanta, Secretary of Wesleyan Service Guild; Mrs. Rembert Green, of Sandy Springs, Secretary of Student Work; Mrs. J. D. Gibson, of Royston, Secretary of Young Women's and Girls' Groups; Mrs. Charles Robeson, of Atlanta, Secretary of Children's Work; Mrs. Reeves Gaston, of Atlanta, Secretary of Missionary Education and Service; Mrs. L. A. Hardy, of Thomaston, Secretary of Social Relations and Local Service; Mrs. Boyd Ozment, of Decatur, Secretary of Literature and Publications; Mrs. B. S. Chandler, of Augusta, Secretary of Supplies; Mrs. H. B. Trimble, of Atlanta, Chairman of Spiritual Life Group, and Mrs. Hugh Carithers, of Winder, Chairman of Committee on Status of Women. District officers are to be chosen today.

DONATIONS $164,752

Mrs. E. W. Brogdon, Treasurer, reported the 514 auxiliary societies in the Conference, with a membership of 22,000, this year had raised a total sum of $164,752, for an increase of $10,000 above last year. Of this amount, $106,810 had been expended for foreign mission work.

Mrs. Bennett Hutchison, President of the Atlanta East District WSCS, reported that 38 auxiliary societies in that district had overpaid their pledge of $20,000 in the sum of $5,132, of which $3,430 was used locally. The Camp Glisson Fund received also, in addition, $7,175.

For the Atlanta West District WSCS, Mrs. Arthur J. Styron, President, reported overpayment of pledges of $14,000 in the sum of $6,000, of which amount $13,716 was used locally.

In her presidential address, Mrs. Awtrey, retiring from that office after 11 years, stated that the number of auxiliary societies in that time had increased from 411 to 514, with a membership growth from 16,800 to 22,000, and with a grand total contribution increase from $50,951 to $106,809.

The women's conference will be in session today and tonight, with adjournment expected at noon Friday.

A fleet of Boeing B-29 Superfortresses of the famous 307th Bombardment Group, MacDill Field, Florida, will "bomb" Atlanta in April en route to long-range training maneuvers in the Midwest.

Col. John G. Eriksen, commanding officer of the group, said the bombers will simulate bombing runs on Atlanta and 14 other metropolitan areas in several States, flying at an altitude of about 1,500 feet.

HE WINS DIVORCE, SHE, 10 CHILDREN

LAS VEGAS, Nev., March 26—(AP)—The father of 10 children divorced their mother here on charges of extreme cruelty.

John A. Borges, 40, testified that once he brought a psychiatrist home to take a look at her and she chased them both from the house. Mrs. Borges was awarded custody of all the children.

Art Students Plan Beaux Arts Ball

The surrealist theme has been chosen for the first annual Beaux Arts Ball to be given by the High Museum School of Art tomorrow evening at Yaarab Hall on Peachtree Street.

Original costumes carrying out all phases of modern art have been designed and executed by students of the school as regular class projects. All wall space of the dance hall will be covered by bizarre mural designs in the surrealist and abstract manner, which were painted by the students of this year's graduating class.

A feature will be a tableau, depicting a surrealist artist's mind. Dr. Frank L. Belyeu, President of the Atlanta Theater Guild, is Director.

Stars Feature the Opening Of Atlanta Ballet Theater

By ROSSIE GILMORE
of the Southern Ballet

"Le Lac des Cygnes" was danced as the opening ballet by the Ballet Theater at the Erlanger Wednesday night. Unfortunately only the second act of Swan Lake is given in this country. Although Tchaikowsky has written some beautiful music to accompany a romantic ballet, American audiences demand the exciting tour de force, and so we have only the second act.

Alicia Alonso, as the Queen of the Swans, is beyond reproach technically and executes some difficult adages, but there is more to the role than technique. Igor Youskovitch, this reviewer's favorite classical ballet dancer, portrayed the Prince with feeling that went beyond his brilliant battus in the variation.

Always a favorite with the audience is the Dance of the Four Swans. Their echappes, passes, entrechat quatre and peques pleased the audience with the precision demanded in this pas de quatre.

Ballet Theater has an excellent corps de ballet, and ensemble work in Swan Lake merits high praise. Max Goberman, who conducted the music for this ballet, has a real feeling for this music and understands how to work with dancers.

Anthony Tudor composed Jardin aux Lilas in London in 1936. Wednesday night the corps de ballet executed the ballet well, and Alicia Alonso was convincing. However, the conception of the ballet seems dated.

Four our money we will take Nora Kaye. Here is a ballerina who possesses skill enough to portray the coy part of the Black Swan pas de deux with dramatic power. We like to watch her face as she dances. She seems to enjoy it, and so do we.

Youskevitch did not lose any of his artistry during his service in the Navy. He still dances the Black Swan variation with ease and grace. The Atlanta audience was thrilled when he made his entrance with grand jetes in the pas de deux.

TRIBUTE TO BALLET

Ballet Theater is the only major American ballet company. The directors, Lucia Chase and Oliver Smith, are wise to include the choreography by such American composers as Jerome Robbins in their repertoire. It is a tribute to ballet that it is a medium flexible enough to include American themes on modern life.

"Interplay" is a ballet charming in its concept, if not original. The music by Morton Gould and the dancing are interpreted admirably. Tommy Rawl, who has a solo, is a promising young dancer, but we wish he could perform as well in Atlanta as he does at the Metropolitan in New York. He was probably depressed by the small audience.

The audience was disappointing, due, probably, to the competition from the Rubinstein concert. Ballet Theater presents a matinee Thursday, and some of the newer work at a final performance Thursday night.

Miss Martha Davis And Visitors Feted

Miss Martha Davis, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar G. Davis, who attends Sweet Briar College, arrives today to spend the Spring holidays. She will be accompanied by three of her schoolmates, Miss Katherine Fulton, of Roanoke, Va.; Miss Sally Davis, of Columbus, and Miss Jean Hazelhurst, of Memphis, who will be feted at numerous parties.

Miss Davis is entertaining at a tea this afternoon to honor these attractive visitors and tonight Miss Davis' parents will compliment the charming foursome at an informal buffet supper.

Graduating in the first class from a new beauty school is William E. South, of Atlanta, who is seen practicing his newly learned skill as a hair stylist. A former GI, Mr. South, just 21, decided he would like to enter the beauty business when he was a barber aboard a ship during the war.

Mrs. Arnold Feted

Parties continue to fete Mrs. Paul T. Arnold, recent bride. On Saturday Mrs. J. W. Sutton will entertain Mrs. Arnold at a tea at Rich's at 4 o'clock. Eighteen friends of the honor guests have been invited to attend. Mrs. Arnold is the former Miss Carolyn Bennett.

Beauty School Teaches Wide Range Subjects

By WINIFRED WARE

The hair stylist, scissors in nimble fingers, snips deftly and confidently at your hair; the girl who gives your weekly shampoo winds and pins the curls so they comb out in manner desired, and the girl who gives the manicure, the facial, the rinse or the tint, knows what she is doing and does it with skill and ease and with satisfactory results. In fact, these people upon whom much feminine beauty depends, do things with such inspiring confidence and skill we seldom think to inquire how or where they learned to do their highly technical jobs. Few realize that hair and beauty specialists go to school to learn their work. Actually, they go to school for 1,200 hours and study everything from shop deportment, sterilization and sanitation, skin diseases, skin treatments, structure of the skin, and glands, the skeletal system, hair cutting, permanent waving, hair dressing, manicuring, hand treatments and bleaching and dyeing.

A nationally known beauty method opened a school in Atlanta six months ago and now is ready to hand diplomas to its first class of graduates. Most of the graduates, both men and women, are veterans. They have completed the course of instruction, done the required number of practice hours and every one has a job awaiting; one will open her own shop. But, first, each one must take a medical examination, have a blood test and pass an examination given by the Board of Barber and Hairdresser Examiners of the State of Georgia. This examination includes actual demonstrations on living models of skin treatments, permanent waving and other beauty work, and in addition a written test of 50 questions concerning hygiene, sanitation, bacteriology and methods of sterilization, and shop management. This school, the first of its kind in the Southeast, serves Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas. In addition, students from Illinois, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Ohio and one from New York are now enrolled.

Students, numbering 18, in the first graduating class include William E. South, Atlanta, former barber aboard one of Uncle Sam's ships in wartime; Thomas R. Crawford, Atlanta; Charles A. Hendricks, Thomaston, Ga.; Miss Virginia Bell, former WAC, of Decatur; Mrs. Claudia P. Giddings, former WAC, and Mrs. Anne Allen, former WAVE, both of Atlanta. All the graduating boys and most of the girls are former GI's, their ages averaging around 22 years.

Directors of the school plan to add some courses in art to the already broad curriculum, because they believe that dimensions and a study of face and hair lines is important in hair styling.

JESSIE'S Notebook

Jessie De Both says:

SO YOU DON'T FEEL LIKE COOKING...

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE in the mood for cooking to prepare a good meal, thank goodness. There are times when each of us would rather skip a meal than put one on the table. But active children and hardworking fathers need regular nourishment, so we just have to produce. They never guess our hearts aren't always in it. But ready-to-serve foods help, even with baby; good cleansers make housework light. We can afford to play gallant.

IT PAYS TO SAVE

WE ALL WANT to make good investments. One of the best I've heard of is a Norge Home Freezer. You'll have a profit-making bank in your own pantry. Buy your raw materials with judgment and an eye on seasonable items at the lowest market prices just as any bank does with its stocks and bonds. You'll collect dividends. Buy your meat, fish, vegetables and fresh fruits to advantage and use them when items are scarce, expensive and not out-of-the-top-drawer in quality. The vertical kitchen-type 6 cu. ft. Norge freezer has a 6 compartment, six door design, holds 210 lbs. of food and is as easy to use as your recipe card file. The eye-level shelves prevent bending and lifting. You are master of your money. You will choose to spend it when prices are low. When prices soar you'll never have to borrow your new coat money to buy food. The food, good and cheap, will be right in your Home Freezer. You can't lose.

BUREAU FOR BABY

LIFE CAN BE much easier, if you have a big bureau used exclusively for baby's things. Use the deeper bureau drawers for piling up shirts, nighties, receiving blankets, etc. Shallow drawers are fine for clothing that shouldn't be wrinkled. The top serves as space for baby's special toilet articles. And, of course, baby needs his own special foods, too. When the time comes (your doctor will tell you) give him Gerber's Strained Foods. There are 18 different kinds from soups through desserts. Vegetables and fruits, carefully chosen, are washed in pure, deep well water. All are strained to fine, uniform texture easy for a young baby to digest. To retain precious vitamins and minerals Gerber's are cooked by steam under pressure. Older babies enjoy the 13 Gerber's Chopped Foods.

IF LOOKS COULD KILL...

MOST OF US WOULD STARE at the grime on the kitchen wall or fingerprints on the woodwork and wish them out of existence—just like that! Or if that kind of magic came in a bottle, we'd invest in it on the spot. That makes me good-news-Jessie today, because I've discovered the bottled magic—it's new—and the name, correctly enough, is Boon Household Cleaner. Made by the makers of Clorox, it's death to dirt, grime, grease, soot or lipstick smears, but kind to washable paint and hands. Just a few swipes of a Boon-dampened cloth at the mean spot, whether it's on linoleum, stove, painted wall, painted furniture or woodwork, and the job is done. No mixing, rinsing or drying. The Boon formula might have come from an ancient book of magic, but it didn't. Some smart modern scientists turned it out, and the quart and half-gallon sizes sell for a thrifty price at your dealer's.

MORE POWER TO GRANDMA

I'D LIKE TO TRY an experiment! Take one old-school grandmother, a tiny apartment kitchen, a box of Betty Crocker Split Pea Soup Ingredients, and leave them alone together. Knowing the delicate seasoning of the pre-cooked split-peas in the Betty Crocker Soup and knowing it even has a hint of hickory smoke flavoring in it—there's only one way the test can work out. Grandma will never again feel it necessary to toil over her own pea soup. She may suggest, to add color and variety for my company dinner, that I drop in that left-over piece of fried ham, cut in cubes. But she'll never write Betty Crocker or her staff at General Mills that grandma could have done better!

Ickes To Speak Here on Sunday

Harold L. Ickes, former Secretary of the Interior and now a newspaper columnist, is scheduled to be the principal speaker at the Georgia State Conference of the United Jewish Appeal to be held Sunday in the Ansley Hotel.

The subject of Ickes' address has not been given.

The conference will begin at 12:30 p. m. and last until 5 p. m. Other speakers include William Rosenwald, National President of the United Jewish Appeal; Mrs. Sophie Spajaard, of Holland, and Ihschaq Ben-Aharon, from Palestine.

SUSAN PETERS HITS COMEBACK TRAIL

HOLLYWOOD, March 26 (AP)—Susan Peters is preparing to make another move on the comeback trail.

The courageous actress, paralyzed below the waist since a hunting accident injury Jan. 1, 1945, has virtually been assured of a starring role in "Sign of the Ram," a Columbia Pictures production slated for July, the studio reported.

She will play the entire part in a wheel chair.

Georgia High Court Settles Battle of the Governors

Labor Protest Looms On Newly-Passed Laws

Look for labor—either CIO or AFL, for the two factions are joined in this fight—to file, in the near future, litigation challenging the new labor laws passed recently in Georgia and several other States.

The case will originate either in Georgia (in the event this State's new laws aren't vetoed by Acting Gov. Thompson), Florida, Texas, Arkansas, or one of the other States having passed new labor regulatory bills.

This is current talk in Southern labor circles.

Labor's viewpoint is that the new laws, all of which, labor maintains, "are of the same cut, as if they were printed in the same shop," are in violation of existent Federal statutes—the Norris-LaGuardia, Wagner and Clayton Acts—and of constitutional provisions.

Labor is expected to contest the new laws on the point of whether they can supersede Federal statutes.

It is the feeling in labor circles that the State laws were passed as a part of a national pattern to influence labor legislation now being considered in Congress.

Labor has charged that the National Association of Manufacturers, through its affiliates, has led the fight for State labor regulations. This the NAM denies.

The new laws generally prohibit the closed shop, the voluntary check-off method of collecting union dues, and mass picketing.

Laws prohibiting the closed shop, labor holds, are in violation of Federal statutes upholding the sanctity of contract and are abridgements of civil rights written into the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

On the legislation affecting mass picketing, labor holds that it is in violation of provisions of the Bill of Rights granting the right of free speech and assembly.

All bills, they hold, in various particulars are in violation of Federal labor acts now in existence and of constitutional clauses upholding citizen rights.

WINDOWS, FLOORS THEIR SPECIALTY

Tech Students Launch Housework Help Service

By KATHERINE BARNWELL

Waxing floors and washing windows—chores much disrelished by most harried housewives—can be an "art" and a profitable one, a group of Georgia Tech boys insists.

Eight business-minded Tech students recently joined in forming the Georgia Tech Service Company, which advertises its specialty as "Floors cleaned and waxed and windows thoroughly cleaned"—for a sum of course.

"Highest quality—lowest rates" is the slogan the boys adopted to adorn their freshly printed business cards.

Through their fledgling concern, they are earning pin money, book money and date money, with even a little left over to pad their newly opened bank account.

"WORKING OUT FINE"

The Georgia Tech Service Company has been in operation about a month now, and it's "working out fine so far," declared Ariel Conlin, who originated the idea. Ariel, a tall blond, 18-year-old freshman, regards the fact that the boys are their own bosses as one of the chief advantages of their venture.

"No one can tell you what to do," he mused happily.

Ariel attributes his idea for the waxing-washing business to his having had to do both for his mother—gratis.

"If I have to do it," he had reasoned, "I might as well get paid for it."

So Ariel ,who gained some business experience through Junior Achievement, enlisted the aid of his friend, Charles DeWald, and the two became co-managers of the business.

Other boys in the Service Company are Howard Peterson, Bill Renson, Charles deJarnette, Tom Estes, Paul DeWald and Bill Stanton.

The boys first started soliciting customers by house-to-house calls. But that was "hard on the feet" and not too successful. Then they adopted the phone-calling method, only to find it was too easy for the voice at the other end of the line to say "No."

A series of classified ads, describing their service, is bringing best results, they say.

The boys have developed the process of waxing floors "into an art," Ariel said. First, furniture is removed. Then the floor is cleaned with mineral spirits, sandpapered with a sanding machine at least three times, given two coats of shellac, and finally, polished with a waxing machine.

"We have had no complaints to date," Ariel pointed out pridefully.

The boys work in pairs, and on an average size house, they use four boys. Each boy works eight to 10 hours a week in off hours from school.

"There's just one more thing I wonder if you could put in," ventured Ariel. "Could you mention that our telephone number is JAckson 3443-W?"

Well, Ariel, there it is.

WITH SOFT DRINK 'COCKTAILS'

Bobby Soxers To Have Own Swank Night Spot

By ANN WOOD

With music from a teen-age band and a floor show that's shaping up right nicely, thank you, the Green Derby, a night spot for bobby soxers only, will open Saturday, April 5, at 594½ Peachtree St.

Soft drinks—in cocktail glasses—will be dispensed from the "bar" and sandwiches and specialties will be whipped up by a teen-aged chef.

Operated by a Junior Achievement company, the Green Derby was originally slated to open in Junior Achievement headquarters as the House of Green Lights.

However, the company ambitiously decided to find a larger place, and finally picked the Peachtree spot, upstairs, near North Avenue. Bill Gibson, the emcee and temporary President of the company, says the Derby will accommodate 200 couples each Saturday night from 7 until midnight.

Jack Caldwell and his band, the Coeds—a 11-piece band with three girls—will play. Harry Knight, 16-year-old magician, will perform. Dorothy Williams, of Washington Seminary, and Geraldine Childs, of Girls High, will have a dance act; Don Kessler, of Boys High, a comedy routine. Bob Horton, of Tech High, will play his guitar, Western style.

"We're going to do this thing in style," says Emcee Gibson. "We'll have tablecloths, and a green candle on each table, all soft lights. We're going to put green and white balloons on the ceiling. We're not going to put those soft drinks in bottles and threw 'em at people; we're going to serve them in glasses and call them cocktail names."

All performers in the floor show are members of the JA Company, including Bandleader Caldwell. The Company will pay his band members a salary.

Gillette Firm's Profits $10,501,448 for 1946

BOSTON, March 26—(AP)—Gillette Safety Razor Company and subsidiaries reported Wednesday 1946 net profit of $10,501,448, equal to $4.55 a common share, compared with $4,892,868, or $1.74 a share, in 1945.

The Directors also declared a quarterly dividend of 62 1-2 cents on common stock, payable April 25 to holders of record April 7. The previous quarterly rate was 50 cents.

Cards May Not Be Such Pikers After All

The St. Louis Cardinals have long had the reputation of being the poorest paying baseball team in the major leagues.

This popular opinion has worried us since we were a kid. The Cards were our chosen people and we bravely withstood the taunts of playmates, mostly Yankee fans, who delighted in yelling: "Ya, ya! Pikers! Cheap skates! Your team works for Coolie wages."

It was useless to deny it then and until now we have been unable to find a reasonable argument to the contrary. How can you answer this statement? "Greenberg gets nearly $100,000 from the Pirates; Musial gets less than $30,000 from the Cards."

Anyway, the nearest thing to a rebuttal arrived in the mail the other day from Mr. Sam Breadon himself, president of the St. Louis club.

It was a nice letter, one which was prompted by some remarks of ours about the Card reputation for cheapness while having a little fun at the expense of Mr. Jorges Pasquel in a recent piece for the paper.

Breadon's letter included the same information which has appeared in various columns written by sports writers from Florida training camps this Spring. Therefore, while the information is not exclusive, it nevertheless, is quite interesting.

"I'm positive that in the last 20 years we have never been out of the first division in salaries," Breadon wrote. "Last year, I know we were second and with bonuses paid at the end of the season, I believe we were first.

"This year, I know our payroll is the largest in the National League."

Well, frankly, this is quite a surprise to us but we are certainly glad to hear it. After all, that's the way it should be. A world's championship team ought to be worth more than any of the other clubs.

"The Cardinals have been out of the first division only three times in the last 21 years," Breadon continued, "have won nine pennants and six World Series. A dissatisfied, unhappy, underpaid ball club does not win pennants, nor do they have the team spirit that is characteristic of all Cardinal ball clubs."

Mr. Breadon has another point here. His logic is sound, although we have heard it said that the reason for the Card team's hustle and spirit was the fact the boys found it desirable to win the flag and get into the World Series in order to eat more regularly during the Winter months.

We are inclined to discredit the latter, however, and to agree with Breadon that his team certainly doesn't play as if it is unhappy or underfed.

Smaller Attendance "We have the smallest population center in the major leagues to support two major league ball clubs, and some of the Eastern writers cannot understand how a city the size of St. Louis can beat the great metropolitan centers in the National League year after year," Breadon concluded.

The Card president evidently means that because of smaller attendance he cannot afford to pay his players as much as the teams in New York, Chicago or Philadelphia. This also seems to be sound reasoning.

However, the hint that writers tabbed the "cheapness" sign on the Cards because of Eastern teams' inability to defeat them sounds a little childish and far-fetched.

As far as we know, no one can put his finger on any one thing which brought about this reputation. It has been built up over the years and probably was most highly publicized in the days when Dizzy Dean staged an annual "holdout" for $50,000 and always signed for less than half that figure.

It has been emphasized by such stories as the one concerning Whitey Kurowski after the 1942 World Series. You will recall that Kurowski was the hero of that series, hitting a home run to win the fifth and final game for the Cards.

The story then followed that Whitey's share of money obtained from the Series was far more than his salary had been playing all season with the Cards.

Rumors like this, never confirmed or denied because of Breadon's policy of not announcing salaries, lend credence to the cheapness stories.

Taking into consideration Breadon's remarks, plus the fact he had no trouble signing players like Enos Slaughter and Harry Brecheen this season, one realizes that perhaps after all, the piker label may be exaggerated.

Personally, we hope so because of an everlasting admiration for the way the Cardinals play baseball.

Blues Down Conners In AAU Cage Tourney

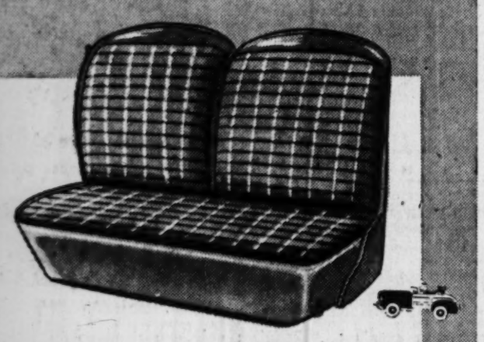

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 26—The Atlanta Sports Arena Blues moved into the semifinals of the annual Women's National AAU basketball tournament here tonight with an easy 38-19 triumph over Conners College, of Warner, Okla.

The Blues will meet the AIB team, of Des Moines, Iowa, tomorrow night for the right to enter the championship round.

Nashville's Goldblumes, defending champions, also reached the semifinals tonight with a 35-19 victory over Denver Dry Goods.

In the consolation bracket this afternoon Twin Hills, of Okmulgee, Okla., defeated Omaha Commercial Extension, 31-11; the Kansas City Darkhorses downed the Nu-Grapes, of Dallas, Texas, 19-17, and Columbus, Ohio, J. K. won from the Topeka, Kan., MacKenzies, 32-31.

Cracker Bees Lose By 12 to 7

GAINESVILLE, Fla., March 26 Columbus, of the Sally League, overcame an early lead to defeat the Atlanta Crackers' B team by a 12-7 count here this afternoon.

Jimmy Blair, Cracker first baseman, put Atlanta temporarily out in front in the first with a home run over the left field fence with two mates aboard.

The Redbirds were not to be denied, however, as they reached Pete Bryant for one tally in the second and then sent 10 hitters to the plate in the third, scoring four times before the side could be retired. The Birds added three off Bryant in the next frame and got their final runs off George Koval in the last three frames.

Three Columbus hurlers, Gooding, Rogers and Pohlsky, held the Crackers to 10 blows, three of which were gathered by Roy Hartsfield. One of the second sacker's blows was a double.

Taylor May Aid Georgia's Rauch At Quarterback

ATHENS, March 26 — Coach Wally Butts, searching for a relief quarterback for Johnny Rauch, may find his answer in Spafford Taylor, young signal caller from Miami Beach.

Taylor, who saw minor action last season as a quarterback and fullback, rejoined the Georgia Bulldogs today as they resumed Spring practice.

Taylor had scholastic difficulties after last season but has straightened them out and will see action in the G Day game two weeks hence.

Today's work was devoted largely to reconditioning, since the Bulldogs have had a week and a half layoff. The G Day game will be played April 11.

SCORES WINNING RUN FOR TIGERS—John McHale is shown sliding across the plate with the winning run as the Detroit Tigers defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-6, yesterday in an exhibition game at Lakeland, Fla. McHale was plated by Clint Conatser's single to left. Rollie Hemsley, Phillie catcher, co-operated by dropping the ball on the play.

50 Jackets Will Start Baseball Drills Today

By JIMMY WALL

Fifty hopefuls are due to report to Rose Bowl Field this afternoon to greet Coach Joe Pittard for Georgia Tech's opening baseball practice session.

With the opening game still more than a month away, Coach Pittard will begin workouts with his non-football squad members today after spending most of yesterday issuing equipment to candidates.

Football drills, which open at the Flats Friday, will keep at least five of the Jackets from baseball workouts for the next six weeks, but Pittard has plenty of material on hand to start limbering-up drills today. The workouts will continue in the afternoon until the opener with South Georgia Teachers' College in Atlanta, May 6.

Thirteen games have been scheduled for May and the season will run through the Summer quarter, Coach Pittard said. The complete schedule will be released later, after approval by the faculty.

"Whack" Hyder, former Tech basketball and baseball star, who served as B team basketball coach, will aid Pittard with the Jacket nine.

The quintet of gridmen who will miss the opening sessions are expected to form a strong nucleus for the Tech nine when they report before the opening game. Louis Hook, Jim Stills, Jimmy Luck, Henry Schoening and Rabbit Jordan are all returning from last year's Summer squad.

Short Holes Hold Key to Success In Charlotte Open

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 26 (AP)—A pair of short holes—the finishing holes on both nines—may decide who'll win the fourth annual four-day $10,000 Charlotte Open Golf Tournament starting tomorrow.

The 215-yard ninth cost Byron Nelson a victory in 1944. He couldn't get a par three in four tries. (Nelson got his threes the next year and won.) It's uphill all the way with the green banked high.

Another uphill climb comes on the 229-yard 18th. A hook brings trouble and a slice often is out of bounds. Few pars are scored.

With Nelson, Sammy Snead, Hogan and other aces missing, some pros guessed that 280—eight under par for the 72 holes—might win the $2,000 first prize here. Dutch Harrison's 275 four years ago was the highest winning score here. Nelson and Snead tied at 272 in 1945 and Hamilton won with 273 last year.

Boys High Rifle Teams Fire Scores of 851,847

Two five-man Boys High rifle teams fired scores of 851 and 847 in the William Randolph Hearst matches recently. Frank Ochsenfeld, with 181, and Carl Clarke, with 176, paced one team and Joe Greenfield, with 174, and Guy Sillay, with 173, the other.

In the Junior Trophy matches the Boys High team fired a 766 total. Hugh Folk, with 176, and Tommy Bender, with 173, were high scorers.

CRACKERS SEND EIGHT TO FARMS

GAINESVILLE, Fla., March 26—Eight Cracker hopefuls were sent to farm clubs today, Cracker officials announced.

Dave Williams, second base; Rudy Jones, first base; Buck McAnulty, shortstop; Don Harwood, pitcher, and Charlie Weathers, outfielder, were sent to Waycross. Claude Swiggett, infielder, was sent to Burlington, N. C., and Floyd Pittman, third base, and Jesse Grimes, pitcher, were assigned to Gainesville, Florida.

Johnny Evers in Critical Condition

ALBANY, N. Y., March 26—(AP) John J. (Johnny) Evers, pivot man of baseball's Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance double play combination, was in critical condition today in St. Peter's Hospital.

His physician said he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and had been in the hospital since late yesterday.

Highest Priced Car Entered at Lakewood

America's most beautiful and most expensive dirt track racing car will decorate the speed picture at Lakewood this Sunday.

The machine, a special built Offenhauser which was formerly owned and driven by the late Gus Schrader, has been entered in the inaugural AAA sanctioned races, billed for Sunday afternoon, Director Sam Nunis atnnounced.

Ben Musick, of Dallas, Texas, one of the nation's leading race pilots, will pilot the glamour car, which will be making its first start in AAA dirt track competition.

Maxine Vaughn Ties For First in Contest

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 26—(AP)—Jimmie Maxine Vaughn, of the Atlanta, Ga., Sports Arena Blues, and Pat McAfee, of the Dallas, Texas, Nu-Grapes, each hit 44 out of 50 shots to lead qualifiers in the free-throw contest, annual feature of the Women's National AAU Basketball Tournament here.

Lincolnshire Handicap Won By 100-1 Shot

LINCOLN, England, March 26—(AP)—The mud and a rodeo-size field — and a 100-to-1-shot — beat back the American hopes in the Lincolnshire Handicap today, as a rank outsider, Jockey Treble, came home by a neck and the New York favorite, Whistling Wind, finished far out of the money.

Jockey Treble beat back the record high of 46 starters in the gooey going. In the pari-mutuels, his return was even higher—14 pounds, 10 shillings, six pence ($58.10) for a bet of two shillings (40 cents).

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, March 26—(AP)—Bobby Locke and Sandy Guthrie, of South Africa, defeated Sam Snead and Sid Childs, 4 and 3, in an 18-hole match at Kensington today.

Bobby Locke Is Tagged As Threat in Masters

By CHICK HOSCH

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 26—(AP)—It's beginning to appear that the Masters Tournament Committee came up with a combination "ringer-darkhorse" in inviting Bobby Locke, the South African golf champion, to play in this year's event.

Locke, fresh from a tour of South Africa with British Open Champion Sammy Snead as the victim, has never won any of the game's bigger titles, but it wouldn't surprise a lot of people if he won the Masters.

Under the rigid invitational rules governing this time-honored event here April 3-6 over the 6,800-yard National course, Locke could not qualify. So the committee extended a special invitation to him as a "foreign champion."

Locke's putting game on unfamiliar greens will no doubt be the chief center of interest concerning him, for it was in that field that other foreign contenders in recent months—Dai Rees, Dick Burton and Charlie Ward, all of England—had the most trouble.

Crackers Defeat Columbus, 16-7

By F. M. WILLIAMS, Constitution Sports Writer.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 26—A seven-run second inning, featured by Charley Trippi's three-run homer, gave the Atlanta Crackers a comfortable working margin and the Southern Association champions went on to beat Columbus, of the American Association, 16 to 7, here this afternoon.

The Bed Birds made a game of it for five innings, pulling to within three runs of tying the count at one time. But when Dewey Adkins took over the hurling duties from Geoge Diehl, he throttled the uprising and coasted home easily.

Adkins, whose work this Spring has been sensational, pitched four scoreless innings to run his string to 12 in a row and 13 out of the last 14. He has given up eight hits and the only two runs were scored on a homer. He piled up the record against Rochester, Minneapolis and Columbus, all Tripple A clubs.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 26—Bill Rabe, purchased from Toronto, joined the Atlanta Crackers here this afternoon.

No word has been received from Mike Milosevich, obtained in a trade for Pitcher Rene Cortes, and Outfielder Jim McCarnes. Milosevich had refused to report to Beaumont, with whom the trade was made, and if he does join the Crackers it probably will be when the club returns home April 3.

Diehl got credit for today's victory, but the big hight-hander was far from being at his best. He gave up eight hits and all seven of the Columbus runs in the five frames he worked.

Manager Ki Ki Cuyler found plenty of encouragement in Bruce Konopka's performance at the plate in today's game. He slammed out four line drive singles in five trips to the plate and drove across three runs.

Konopka is the fanciest thing, defensively, Cracker fans have had a chance to see in some time. He came up with four in-the-dirt throws this afternoon, and at least two of them shut off runs.

One of the most unusual things about the game was the fact that Trippi, whose speed has been his biggest asset all Spring, hit into three double plays, in the third, seventh and eighth innings.

The Crackers close their exhibition schedule in Florida Thursday afternoon against Minneapolis at Ocala.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 26—A pulled leg muscle will keep Charley Trippi from the Cracker lineup for a few days, it was announced here today. Trippi will take only light work, Manager Cuyler said, and is expected to be back in top shape for the exhibition series in Charleston.

Tulsa Outfielder Is Traded to Barons

BATON ROUGE, La., March 26 (AP)—Grayle Howlett, general manager of Tulsa's Texas League baseball club, announced today that Outfielder Wilmer Skeen had been traded to Birmingham, of the Southern Association.

Bagby Hurls In Pirate Win

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Ken Gables and Jim Bagby limited the Toronto Maple Leafs to three hits today as the Pittsburgh Pirates made the most of seven blows to grab a 5-2 victory over the International Leaguers in a Spring exhibition. One of the Buccos' hits was a first-inning homer by Shortstop Billy Cox, his third in the Grapefruit circuit.

Star-Studded Field Opens Play In Augusta Titleholders' Meet

By DOROTHY KIRBY
Special Constitution Correspondent.

AUGUSTA, March 26—The eighth annual Women's Titleholders' Golf Tournament will open here tomorrow at the Augusta Country Club course with practically all of the top American golfers and a pair of star Britishers seeking the title captured last year by Georgia's Louise Suggs.

Play will be over the 72-hole route with 18 holes scheduled each day through Sunday.

The first twosome is scheduled to leave the initial tee tomorrow at 12:30 p. m.

On the eve of the first day's play, Babe Zaharias, National Amateur queen and winner of seven straight Winter tournaments in Florida this year, is still rated the player to beat. The Babe, who hails from Denver, Colo., shot a 73 in a practice round Monday over the Augusta C. C. Course and yesterday toured the Augusta National Course in 77 while playing in company with Ed Dudley, the PGA President and home pro at the National layout. None of the other participants came close to these scores in pre-tournament rounds.

The two foreign entries, Maureen Ruttle and Ruth Woodward, have been here for quite a while, and are expected to be well up in the running for this year's crown.

Louise Suggs, Mrs. Julius Page, Patty Berg, Betty Jameson and Kathryn Hemphill are a few of the other well-liked entries.

Here is the lineup for today: Louise Suggs and Sally Sessions; Mary McMillian and Grace Lenczyk; Dot Kirby and Mary Agnes Wall; Hope Seignious and Helen Sigel; Patty Berg and Betty Jameson; Kathryn Hemphill and Maureen Ruttle; Isabel Igilvie and Mrs. Charles Harbaugh; Jean Hopkins and Eileen Stulb; Babe Zaharias and Mrs. Dan Chandler; Peggy Kirk and Estelle Page, and Laddie Irwin and Ruth Woodward.

Cage Rules Are Modified By Committee

NEW YORK, March 26—(AP)—The National Basketball Rules Committee today modified the rule governing the last four minutes of play, but refused to throw it out entirely as recommended by the National Coaches' Association.

Under a new rule, adopted at the forenoon session of the sport's governing body, teams will be allowed unlimited substitutions in the entire game and the clock will be stopped on all dead balls in the last three minutes of play.

This replaces a rule in effect during the past season, providing only one re-entry of a player in the last four minutes and stopping the clock every time the ball is dead in the same length of time.

The only other change adopted in the first of two sessions today gives players the privileges of alternating at the restraining circle on all jump balls.

This means that when teams line up for a jump with two players from the same team side by side, an opposing player now has the right to take a position between them, privilege not provided in past rules.

GMA Netmen Beat Marist in Practice Go

GMA's tennis team won a practice match from Marist Wednesday afternoon, 4 to 0, at GMA. Results were:

Bob Pierce (GMA) defeated Allen Morris (M), 6-2, 7-5; Charles Strong (GMA) defeated Russell Long (M), 6-0, 6-3; Frank Alford (GMA) defeated Jack McLellan (M), 6-0, 6-0; Frank Alford and Bob Pierce (GMA) defeated Allen Morris and Jack McLellan—6-1, 6-1.

Rupp Blames Grind, To Cut '48 Schedule

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 26—(AP)—Kentucky, taking a lesson from this season's 37-game grind, will tone down its basketball ambitions next season and play about 25 games, Coach Adolph Rupp said today.

He blamed the heavy schedule and two other factors for Kentucky's failure to successfully defend its National Invitational cage crown in Monday night's finals in New York.

Rupp said he felt the team hit its peak in the Southeastern Conference tournament.

Aside from the grind, Rupp said factors which contributed to the Wildcats' downfall were:

1. The hangover from an attack of flu which struck just before the Temple game, and injuries, especially a back ailment to Alex Groza which Rupp said forced him to send substitutes in for the big center at least a dozen times in New York.

2. "Ugly" rumors of dissension on the squad.

In connection with Point No. 2, Rupp said the rumors stirred players into a frenzy and their efforts to disprove them resulted in tight playing.

Fifth City Swim Meet Opens at Emory Friday

The Fifth Annual City Swimming Championships for the senior high schools of Greater Atlanta will be held on Friday and Saturday at Emory University. Trials in all events are scheduled for Friday at 4 p. m., with finals slated for Saturday starting at 2:30 p. m.

Entries in both boys' and girls' divisions are expected from Druid Hills, GMA, Washington Seminary, Decatur, Napsonian, Tech High, Boys High, North Fulton, College Park, Russell, Girls High and Marist.

Washington Seminary and Boys High will be defending champions in their respective divisions. Chief contenders in the girls' division will be Druid Hills and Decatur High. Mary Link and Dent Richards, both national junior AAU titlists, will lead the Druid Hills girls in their threat to win the crown. Druid Hills and Seminary have won the title twice.

Decatur will present the strongest team ever developed at its school and may cause an upset. The three Buck sisters, Linda, Audrey and Susan, together with Delaine Durdin and Joyce Dean, the latter an SEAAU champion, present a formidable threat.

Gayle Richards, sister of Dent, and the lone entry from Napsonian, who won the junior 50 free and tied Mary Link in last week's championships, is expected to be the dark horse entry in the senior championships.

GMA will once again rule the favorite in the boys' division, although it will be without the services of Tom Smith, their ace backstroker. He has been ruled out of the competition because of an age restriction.

Prizes will be awarded first, second and third places in all events and trophies will be awarded to the team winners.

One-Armed Boxer Wins Bout in Harvard Tourney

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 26 (AP)—Tommy Rodgers, one-armed student from Pittsburgh, today won his semifinal bout by unanimous decision in Harvard's first postwar University Boxing championships.

Flailing away rapidly, Rodgers, who lost his arm in a train wreck five years ago, decisioned Jim Lord in the 155-pound class.

Loss of the arm forced Rodgers from the gridiron and the cinder track, but his love of sport prompted him to try boxing.

The courageous youngster insists he has an advantage over his two fisted opponents.

"I'm forced to fight as a southpaw and most fellows are right handers and that's in my favor," he says.

Tommy Rawson, Jr., a boxing referee and a coach of the sport at Harvard, says that Rodgers "hits hard and doesn't back up much."

"He can't protect himself much but he keeps on the move," Rawson added. "Whenever he throws a punch he's wide open but moves to his right—like a crab—and keeps out of danger pretty well."

Martin Turns Down Mexican Contract

MEXICO CITY, March 26—(UP)—Fred Martin, former St. Louis Cardinal pitcher, was reported to have returned to the United States today without reaching an agreement with Jorge Pasquel, President of the Mexican League, but League headquarters said "we know nothing about it."

The Mexican League season opens tomorrow.

Martin is one of more than a dozen former major and minor leaguers who were balking at terms offered them for 1947.

Stock Sales

NEW YORK, March 26—(AP)—Stocks bounced back in today's market to score gains of fractions to around 3 points in their first general advance of the week.

The rally, which wiped out early losses, picked up enough speed in the final hour to lift the day's total transfers to 940,000 shares, largest since March 12, compared with 660,000 yesterday.

Industrials led the upturn although improvement extended to other sections of the list.

Bidding sentiment was attributed by commission houses to belief the lack of selling pressure on recent declines indicated a favorable position for a comeback, and to optimism engendered by the ready absorption by the capital market of the big American Telephone bond issue. Plenty of skeptics remained, however, with doubts as to foreign situations and domestic strike prospects.

Bond market prices tended to firm in late dealings today, although the scattered improvement was not sufficient to wipe out forenoon irregularity.

Ahead in the curb were Cities Service, Middle West Corporation, Textron, Kaiser-Frazer, and Electric Bond and Share.

Smith, Steele Named Directors

E. D. Smith, Jr., Atlanta lawyer, and Emmett H. Steele, automobile supply dealer, were elected to the Board of Directors of the Auto-Soler Company at an annual stockholders' meeting.

Election of the two men to the Board increased its membership to nine, and there followed a report of the Company's international expansion.

It also was revealed that production per employe had nearly tripled in six years' time.

Cotton Sales

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON

Atlanta spot cotton middling 15-16-inch (uncompressed in warehouses) advanced to 36.15 cents from 35.90 cents, the previous close.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, March 26—(AP) The average price of middling 15-16-inch cotton today at 10 designated Southern spot markets was $1 a bale higher at 36.01 cents a pound; average for the past 30 market days 34.66 cents; middling 7-8-inch average 34.62 cents.

NEW ORLEANS RANGE

NEW ORLEANS March 26—(AP) Cotton futures advanced here today on price fixing and buying stimulated by favorable textile reports and low temperatures in the belt. Closing prices were very steady, 60 cents to $1.10 a bale higher.

NEW YORK RANGE

NEW YORK, March 26—(AP)—Cotton futures registered gains of 80 cents to $1.40 a bale over the previous close in active dealings today. The market was influenced by the growing scarcity of spot cotton supplies and covering in May, 1947, futures. May at the close showed a gain of about $6 a bale compared with a week ago.

There was persistent switching from May into other months, reflecting fear of a tight situation in that contract by first notice day, April 25. The spot cotton markets were quiet but steady and business in cotton textiles was light.

Corn Soars to Best Level Since 1920

CHICAGO, March 26—(AP)—All grains moved sharply higher today under the leadership of corn, which soared to the best levels since 1920 on buying attributed largely to commercial interests.

Heavy profit-taking near the close reduced extreme gains, but wheat finished 1-2 to 3 cents higher, May $2.71 1-4-2.70 3-4. Corn was 1-4 to 6 cents higher, May $1.87 1-4-1.88, and oats 1-2-3 1-4 cents higher, May 92 3-4-92 5-8 cents.

Laundry Truck Carries Driver to Easy Street

Even though the cost of living has skyrocketed, James D. Neal, a Negro laundry truck driver, has managed to save a little during the past year, he told City Detectives I. A. Thomas and T. J. Milligan Wednesday night shortly after they arrested him.

Neal told the detectives that since taking over a laundry route he had managed to save enough money to buy two houses and a $1,000 war bond and that his bank balance today is about $1,000.

"I've done all of that since I went on the laundry truck," the officers quoted him as saying.

Neal, employed by a linen supply house, called daily on large restaurants, drive-ins and barber shops, delivering clean linen and picking up the soiled. At each place he would leave a bill, and at the end of each week or in some instances the end of the month, would collect for the linen service.

Detectives said their investigation showed his customers were paying more for the service than the supply house charged. They said the bill the customer received was not similar to the bill kept by the supply company in their offices. Somewhere along the way, they said, a new bill was made out and the customer overcharged.

One large drive-in had paid out between $4,000 and $5,000 in excess laundry bills during the past year, the detectives said.

Neal, the officers said, admitted raising the bills, and said he had invested the money obtained from the customers. In all, the officers said, the overcharge amounted to approximately $10,000.

Charges of suspicion of cheating and swindling have been docketed against Neal, and he is being held at police headquarters without bond.

Georgia Schools, Teachers Fare Well in Legislation

Legislation affecting Georgia schools and teachers fared rather well in the session of the General Assembly just closed, despite the fact the Legislators did not pass an appropriations bill.

A tabulation shows that 14 measures on education came out of the legislative mill with more "ayes" than "nays," although several others got caught in the complicated law-making machinery.

One of the more important bills was that authorizing the addition of a Twelfth grade to the State school system. It already has been signed into law by Acting Governor Thompson. For the past two months a group of educators has been studying the subject of inaugurating a twelfth grade and if its recommendations are accepted the change-over will be a gradual process and will cost the State very little before the fiscal year 1950-51. A publication outlining the findings of the study group will be issued shortly.

Another measure approved by the General Assembly will place the important veterans' education program under a Veterans' Education Council. Several months ago the Council was abolished and the Veterans' Service Department took over the educational function. The new measure restores the program to its former status.

Three approved teacher retirement bills straighten out some of the kinks in the retirement program, making it possible for teachers to receive full benefits from the system.

County school superintendents were affected in a measure which puts their pay on the same professional basis as that of teachers. A transportation bill allows the State Board of Education to prescribe minimum safety standards for school buses and supervise these standards. Closely allied with this subject is another bill which allows local boards of education to contract for pupil transportation with private individuals for a period of four years instead of the present one year.

Appeals from County Boards of Education henceforth will be carried directly to the State Board of Education, abolishing a former statute which permitted some appeals to go directly to the State Superintendent of Schools.

County Boards also were given authority to float school bond issues either on a district or County-wide basis under Senate Bill 109 which passed both houses. Another measure allows them to invest bond funds and get interest pending the erection of school buildings, and still another authorizes them to condemn private property.

Salvation Army Promotes Pugmire

Commissioner Ernest I. Pugmire, formerly of Atlanta, and for many years Southern Territorial Commander, has been appointed National Commander of the Salvation Army, it has been announced.

In a cable from London, England, Gen. Albert Orsborn, International Leader, announced the appointment to Headquarters in New York City, where Pugmire will hold office.

Pugmire will head an organization of some 5,000 officers scattered throughout 1,365 posts in the territorial United States.

It was announced also that Commissioner Donald McMillan, another former Atlantan, and one time Georgia Commander, has been appointed to direct operations in the Eastern United States.

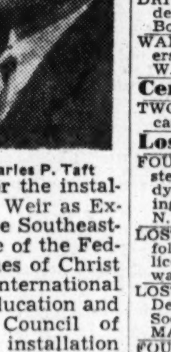

Babe in 'Fair Condition' After Head Injuries

Grady Hospital doctors reported Wednesday Patricia Fennell, three-and-a-half-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fennell, of 629 Crew St., S. W., was in "fair condition" after being brought in Tuesday night with head injuries police said she received when her father was scuffling with friends over a baseball bat.

Police have charged the father with suspicion of assault and battery.

Charles P. Taft Is Slated for Address Here

Charles P. Taft, prominent attorney and civic leader of Cincinnati, Ohio, will address a luncheon forum group at 12:30 p. m. today at the Henry Grady Hotel.

Charles P. Taft

A brother of Sen. Robert Taft, he is an authority on city management and county government. His speech today is sponsored jointly by the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and the Atlanta Christian Council.

Taft is in Atlanta for the installation of Dr. Forest C. Weir as Executive Secretary of the Southeastern Inter-Council office of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the International Council of Religious Education and the Home Missions Council of North America. The installation will take place at 8 o'clock tonight at North Avenue Presbyterian Church, with Bishop Arthur Moore presiding. Taft is President of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Patrolman Receives Possible Back Fracture

Fulton County Patrolman C. L. Hughes, of 30 Matilda Pl., N. W., received a possible broken back Wednesday night when he fell while investigating a lighted room at the West Fulton High School, according to Grady Hospital police.

Lt. E. W. Wilson reported he and Hughes were climbing up the steps of the school when the patrolman slipped on a rock and fell down the stairs. He lost consciousness, and Wilson drove him to Grady Hospital.

Truman Urges More Price Cuts; Worried by Inflationary Signals

WASHINGTON, March 26—(UP)—In a new warning against inflation, President Truman said Wednesday that he hoped business would see the handwriting on the wall and follow the lead of some major industries which already have reduced prices.

Concerned over the high cost of living, Mr. Truman told his press conference that business should cut prices wherever possible because mounting prices mean new wage demands and an inflationary spiral.

If prices continue to rise, he said, there would be a renewed drive for wage hikes in a process that could be endless.

He thought current wage negotiations were going along very well. He cited last Saturday's wage settlement in the rubber industry as an example, saying it had been achieved without causing price rises.

The agreement gave the United Rubber Workers (CIO) a compromise 11½ cent hourly increase. A spokesman for the Big Four rubber companies said they would not have to increase prices and might even be able to reduce them.

Mr. Truman said he has been concerned for months about rising prices and possible inflationary consequences. His Council of Economic Advisors is now making a survey and will report back to him, he added.

Sec. of the Treasury Snyder echoed the President's words. He said prices have gone too high and that he hoped labor would not make undue demands on industry that would cancel possible cuts.

Snyder commended the Ford Motor Company and the International Harvester Company for their announced price reductions and said there were indications other segments of industry were ready to follow suit.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics meantime reported a slight drop in living costs during February. But it said consumers still are getting only 84.8 cents worth of the same goods and services for which they paid $1 a year ago.

It said the retail price of living essentials declined two-tenths of one percent during February for the second consecutive month. But it described the reduction as "small" in comparison with the one and two percent monthly increases in the last half of 1946.

Food prices dropped eight-tenths of one per cent during February, but the cost of clothing, house furnishings and other living essentials climbed by four-tenths of one percent.

The Bureau also reported February gains in employment in manufacturing industries but said that employment dropped off in the construction and trade industries because of unfavorable weather and other seasonal influences.

Durable goods industries showed the biggest gains, with automobile plants adding 33,000 workers and the iron, steel and heavy machinery companies upping their payrolls by 24,000. The apparel industry took on 25,000 new employes for the expected Easter rush.

Officials of the Federal Reserve Board are opposed to any further reduction of cash requirements for trading in listed securities while the "present inflationary tendencies are evident."

Chairman Marriner Eccles said on Feb. 1 that no further changes would be made until justified by "economic conditions." A Board spokesman said no justifying circumstances are foreseen in the immediate future and that margin revisions will have to wait "until there is some better reason than we see now."

Camp Calls Tax Plan a 'Slick Trick'

From The Constitution's News Bureau.

WASHINGTON, March 26—Rep. Camp, of Georgia's Fourth District, Wednesday took a verbal crack at the Republican-sponsored legislation to reduce taxes, terming it a "slick trick" to win votes of the nation's 48,000,000 taxpayers by slipping a tax refund check in each of their pockets just before the 1948 election.

The Republican tax bill now before the House and scheduled to be voted on Thursday, proposes a 10 to 30 percent tax reduction in graduated income brackets, retroactive to Jan. 1, 1947. Taxes now are being withheld from income at the level presently in effect.

The Georgia Congressman, during the debate, said the Republican legislation, if passed, would put the Treasury in debt to the nation's millions of taxpayers and would result in everyone's receiving a tax refund check at approximately the time the 1948 election campaign will be getting under way.

Camp said the "character and patriotism" of the American people will stymie this Republican effort to "buy" the election.

He termed the tax bill "an ill-advised, ill-timed and unconsidered bill," and urged its defeat by the House.

Control Blamed for Few Rental Dwellings Built

Less than 500 permanent dwelling units completed in Atlanta in 1946—an estimated 10 percent of total housing constructed—were built exclusively for rent, L. A. Boggs, Atlanta builder and Secretary of the National Association of Home Builders, disclosed here Wednesday.

The announcement followed a report to the House Banking and Currency Committee by the National Association of Real Estate Boards, which blamed rent control primarily for a nation-wide low in rental housing construction.

An Association spokesman told the Committee risk capital "cannot be expected to invest in rental construction with the threat of continued control and continued economic discrimination which will prohibit a reasonable return on the investment."

He backed the statement with results of a survey from key cities—in which Atlanta building and real estate associations participated—and said replies from 97 percent of cities declared lifting of all Government controls on new rental construction would stimulate the production of rental housing and would attract new risk capital.

Ed Chapman, President of the Atlanta Real Estate Association, said "practically no dwelling units are currently being constructed for rent," but pointed out that the National Association of Real Estate Boards does not advocate complete decontrol of rents "at one fell blow."

National Association recommendations have been outlined as follows: (1) An immediate 15 percent across-the-board rent increase; (2) termination of all rent controls not later than April 30, 1948; (3) immediate removal of rent controls on new construction and conversions; (4) no controls on properties which have not been rented since Feb. 1, 1946; (5) immediate decontrol of accommodations renting over $225 a month; (6) evictions to be brought under local law.

The F. W. Dodge Corporation disclosed that construction contracts were awarded in February for projects to contain 2,708 dwelling units in the Southeastern States, but could furnish no breakdown on planned construction exclusively for rental.

A nation-wide survey of inflation in building costs, released by the corporation, showed Atlanta heading the list with a 93 percent hike in frame dwelling construction. The Corporation reported costs of various types of housing were up in key cities all over the country. A shortage of skilled laborers was blamed, and some builders predicted cost of construction soon will go down and continue to decrease.
